

BUSINESS ASSOCIATION GROWING VERY RAPIDLY

Its Objects Appeal to All Classes of Merchants
In This Hustling
City.

AN AGENT WAS CHOSEN LAST EVENING

As the details for the organization and maintenance of the Business association become more clearly defined, and the membership steadily grows, it is absolutely certain that the project will be successful. Nearly all of the retail merchants in the city are now affiliated with the association, and at the meeting held in the office of T. V. Thompson last evening there was an excellent representation from these concerns.

The aims of the organization are certainly commendable, and offer protection and benefits in abundance to the members. It is certain the inducements held out by the declaration of principles has had the effect of attracting the large membership which the association now enjoys. To begin with, the business men are banded together for the purpose of making a united effort to correct the innumerable evils usually attending the credit system as it had been carried on in this city.

There are a great many customs and practices which have been tolerated by the average retail merchant to their everlasting detriment, and it is the intention to meet these conditions in the most convenient manner through the instrumentality not only of rules to govern the members in the conduct of their business, but in promoting beneficial legislation, as well as opposing in a formidable way legislation hostile to the best interests of the retail merchant. Not the least important of the objects of the new association will be a concentrated movement on the part of the members to harmonize trade relations among business men, which if attained, will mean much to every line of trade within the jurisdiction of the organization. It is reasonable to presume, with a good feeling among the membership, an honest disposition to carry out the principles of harmony between the various branches and an adherence to the policy of "live and let live," that the association will flourish from the very beginning and eventually become a power among the business men of this section.

Though the association has been in existence but a few weeks, the merchants who have connected themselves with it for mutual protection, have taken up the work in dead earnest and with a determination to bring about the reforms intended. New members are being taken in at each meeting, and the association now numbers among its membership nearly all of the best and most enterprising merchants of the city. At no distant date it is confidently expected that there will not be a single retailer outside the association, and when that time comes the officers and members will be in position to enter upon the work with the assurance that success will crown their efforts.

At the meeting last night it was developed that a majority of those present favored retaining a business agent or representative, who would take up the actual business of the association and act for it in all matters affecting its welfare. A large number of applications had been received since it was given out that there would be need for the services of such an official, and while it was agreed any one of them would represent the organization in a satisfactory manner, but one was needed, and the job fell to the lot of L. C. Cooper. Mr. Cooper has had wide experience in the mercantile collecting business and will undoubtedly give the best satisfaction. A headquarters office will be opened for the representative, and he will be put in possession of all the details necessary for the opening of business. It is proposed, just as soon as the association is able to control all of the retail establishments of the city, to open a suite of rooms and furnish them in an up-to-date manner. The collector's office will be located there, along with a hall sufficiently large for the holding of meetings. The headquarters will be selected with a view to having it convenient, commodious and so situated that members may assemble there at all times for the purpose of disseminating trade information.

It will be remembered that the retail grocers and butchers of the city were among the first to conceive the idea of such an organization as that just formed, and their association, which had been in existence for a long time, was merged into the general combination of retailers. The workings of the business association will enable the grocers and butchers to enforce a rule long desired by them, and that is to inaugurate the two weeks' limit system in their respective lines of business. This matter is now receiving attention and will be put in force at an early date.

President of the society, presided. The chief business was the receiving of thank offerings, which netted a goodly sum, although a number of envelopes were not presented which will be ready at the next meeting. It was decided soon to send a barrel of clothing to a needy minister in the west. Rev. Dr. Pratt will soon preach to the society. A committee of 14 ladies was appointed to assist in the services on Missionary day, when the sermon will be delivered.

The society has a number of orders in for the making of quilts, comforts, cushions and other articles, and met this afternoon for the making of the orders. The proceeds will go to the missionary funds.

Overhauling All Cars.
The big cars of the East Liverpool railway company are undergoing a thorough overhauling, re-painting and burnishing. One old car, No. 5, is now in use between East Liverpool and Wellsville, but will be replaced by the regular car as soon as it is turned out of the power house.

Lisbon, November 13.—(Special).—In the case of George Buchheit et al. of East Liverpool, versus the Pennsylvania company, in which a jury trial was waived and the evidence was submitted to the court, Judge Hole was allowed a decree of ejectment and awarded a writ of possession concerning the tract which was in litigation.

Suit was brought to eject the defendant company operating the C. & P. railroad from a strip of land 12 feet wide and about 100 feet long lying between the railroad track and the Ohio river near Union street and Pink alley in East Liverpool. The court found for the plaintiff for the entire strip except a few feet at the north end, and a decree was entered accordingly.

STRICT CHILD LABOR LAW

From a Staff Correspondent.

Columbus, November 13.—Hon. John H. Morgan, chief inspector of the department of workshops and factories, will make a number of important recommendations to the incoming general assembly. He will recommend that the number of deputy inspectors be increased from 13 to 20, and that the salary of each deputy be raised from $1,000 to $1,200 per annum. The present force cannot adequately perform the work of the department as completely as required, owing to industrial activity and the fact of additional work having been placed upon the department by enactments of law subsequent to the one authorizing the present number of inspectors. "This, together with the large increase in the number of factories and public buildings under the jurisdiction of the department, warrants a very large increase in the number of inspectors," says Mr. Morgan.

Another recommendation relates to the child labor law. Mr. Morgan will ask that it be so amended that employers be required to keep a register in which shall be recorded the name, birthplace, age and residence of every person employed by him under the age of 16 years, that it shall be unlawful for any person to hire or employ any child over the age of 14 years and under the age of 16 years unless there is first provided a certificate showing the child has had a certain amount of schooling.

He will also ask that the department be given power to require a certificate of physical fitness from a physician of good standing in case of children who may appear to be physically unable to perform the labor at which they may be engaged, and have power to prohibit the employment of a minor who cannot obtain such certificate.

P. B. Moore, of East Palestine, collector of delinquent taxes, is in the city with about 500 cases to attend to. He does not anticipate much trouble, but the usual number of the cases will find a way into court.

MUCH BETTER QUARTERS

As Well as More Convenient for the Mayor And Auditor—The Work to Start as Soon as Men Can Be Found to Do It.

When the fire committee of council finishes its contemplated improvements at the city hall the interior of that building will have undergone a complete change. Though the quarters of the different officials will yet be somewhat congested they will be more convenient and more beautiful than ever before. The improving is to be started as soon as the men can be secured to do it.

The fire committee, composed of Councilmen Moon, Cannon and Croxall, met at the city building last evening and accompanied by the members of the board of public safety and Mayor Weaver, made a thorough inspection of the interior, listening to all suggestions and requests. In no case did they show a disposition to have the work done contrary to the wishes of those who will occupy the improved quarters. Quite the contrary, they acceded to all requests and will have the building repaired to please all concerned.

It has been definitely decided by the mayor and the city auditor to exchange quarters. A new room is to be made in the hall on the second floor, between the engineer's office and the council chamber, for the township trustees, and the south room on the third floor will be extensively repaired for the use of the board of public safety. Contrary to the first intention, there will be no partition in the room adjacent to the office now occupied by the mayor. The one that was started will be torn down and in its stead will be a long counter extending across the room, over which will be grating, the same as used in banks and numerous other institutions.

This room, which will be used by the auditor, will undergo painting and papering and will have new flooring. The idea of tearing out the present walls surrounding the mayor's sanctum has been abandoned and the room will be used in the future for a committee room and a private office for the auditor. The auditor is to be supplied with some new furniture and he will have a new safe, which will be stationed at the rear of the room. All of the shelving now in use by him will be placed in his new quarters, being arranged so as to suit the requirements of the office.

The mayor's new sanctuary will give him considerable more room than a chief executive has had in years. It will be nicely painted and papered and when it is completed will have a more dignified appearance than ever before. The mayor has asked that a platform be erected in the room and he will be somewhat elevated when this is built. He will have a railing separating him from the rest of the office, and directly in front of him will be arranged the prisoner's chair. He will have the old safe at his command and is sure that his quarters will be very satisfactory.

The board of safety will have everything new in its department, as will the township trustees.

What the exact cost of the improvements will be is not known at present, but the first committee is going to fix up the old rickety place regardless of cost.

Next Meeting in This City.
At the annual convention of the Fourteenth district W. R. C. held at Minerva, yesterday, it was decided to hold the next meeting at East Liverpool in November, 1904. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Hugh Johnston, and the gentlemen's trophy was carried off by Hugh Johnston. Consolation prizes were won by Miss Maloney and Charles Davis.

Lisbon, November 13.—(Special).—Mrs. Emma Kays, of Wellsville, was granted a divorce from Frank B. Kays, in court here yesterday afternoon, and the plaintiff's maiden name, Emma Watson, was restored. The divorce was granted on the grounds of wilful absence and habitual drunkenness. The parties were married June 25, 1896, and had no children.

OF MUCH INTEREST TO ALL OIL MEN

Controversy Over Alleged Contamination of a Stream
Near Columbiana.

VERY IMPORTANT CASE

Lisbon, November 13.—(Special).—The case of the Salem Iron company, of Leetonia, vs. H. H. Hyland, et al., in which the plaintiff seeks to have made permanent an injunction preventing the defendants from pumping an oil well near Columbiana, came on for trial this morning. The plaintiff charges that the salt water from the oil well has so impregnated the water of Cherry Fork creek, from which the iron company derives its water supply, that the saline sediment is ruining its boilers and machinery. The oil well is about three miles up the stream from the plaintiff company's plant.

The case is an important one and the outcome will be awaited with interest by oil men everywhere. A similar action in the common pleas court of Monroe county, O., resulted in a finding in favor of the oil operators. Several oil companies that are interested in the development of the field in the vicinity of Columbiana, where all have valuable and extensive holdings, will be directly affected by the decision in this case.

Quite an array of legal talent is present on the case, the firm of Billingsley, Clark & DeFord and John D. Morgan, of Leetonia, appearing for the plaintiff and Charles D. Dickinson, of Leetonia, Lev. McQuiston, of Butler, Pa., George J. Wolfe, of Pittsburgh, and James O. Troup, of Bowling Green, for the defendants. It has been intimated that one of the large oil companies is backing the defendants.

The wedding of Miss Frances Robinson and Walter Howard Armstrong was solemnized at the home of the bride, Liverpool street, Wellsville, at 8 o'clock last night by Rev. J. W. Toland, of the M. The groom is a resident of Lisbon, where he is employed at the Firestone Bros. bank, and has a host of friends. The bride is a talented young lady, a former teacher in the public schools of the county. The couple will reside in Lisbon.

A NEW ISSUE OF BONDS IS BEING ARRANGED FOR

Solicitor Davidson Preparing the Documents
Which Will Call For $46,000.

THE MONEY TO BE USED TO PAY NOTES

Solicitor George E. Davidson was busy today preparing the assessing and bond ordinances ordered by council for the purpose of getting rid of the outstanding notes given on special improvements. Both will aggregate exactly $46,000 and will be passed by council at its next regular meeting.

Though council has had under contemplation this new issue of bonds for some time, particular interest was not evidenced by the members until last evening, when all were advised through the exclusive publication in the News Review of the clamoring of the local banks for the money loaned by them to the city to pay off the indebtedness on the improvements. The councilmen were somewhat surprised at the sudden turn in the matter, but it was never their intention to give out a false impression and that their stand for the truth of this statement is based on the bond ordinance which specified every creditor.

The assessing ordinance will include the following improvements: Pennsylvania avenue, $29,000; sewers, $13,000; Summit Lane, $2,300; Prospect street, $500. To the above amounts will be added in the bond ordinance $1,200 to provide for the money borrowed by council to assist Carnegie library. The bonds will draw 6 per cent interest, the legal rate, says Auditor Davidson, and there will be no trouble whatever experienced in securing takers.

Council confidently anticipates protests on the part of many uninformed early evening will be spent in salmagundi and other games which will be attractive. One of the most entertaining events of the evening will be an auction. The members of the society will bring any trivial or ridiculous article which will be auctioned off to the highest bidder. The members of the society always manifest their interest by a very good attendance at the social meetings.

TRIP TO THE MOON

A Rare Treat in Store for Music-Loving People—Five Hundred in the Cast.

A most excellent entertainment is to be given at the opera house December 3 and 4 for the benefit of the city hospital. The thorough manner in which the large number of persons connected with the performance are being drilled promises success and large audiences will undoubtedly be present each night.

The production is under the direction of J. G. Hoffman, of New York, and will be given with every accessory of equipment in the way of beautiful and refined costumes, fine scenery and wonderful electrical effects. It supplies more incentive to laughter than anything of its kind in existence. The spectacle is in two acts, the scene of which are thrown around the north pole. Many attempts are made by different explorers to reach the pole, which is finally discovered in a very characteristic and ingenious way by an East Liverpool astronomer, who drops from the moon in a parachute. When he arrives he discovers East Liverpool people at the pole entertaining the strange and wonderful race of people who inhabited the moon. No one who loves beautiful music and a story sweet and pure in tone can afford to miss it, and the cause for which it is given is a most worthy one.

Entertained Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Herron, of Ravine street, entertained last night with a party for about 30 of their friends, most of whom were young married people. The evening was made thoroughly enjoyable with games and music and delightful refreshments were served.

The home and foreign news service of the News Review is excelled by none in this section of the state.

citizens relative to the proposed issue. The protests will be totally disregarded, however, and the bonds will be issued. Council realizes that by turning the notes into bonds a saving of one per cent will be the result and having the power, in fact, being ordered to do so by a provision in the new code, the bonds will be issued without the sanction of persons who may see fit to object.

Knowing that the bonds will be money-makers, it is said that the sinking fund commission which now has about $50,000 at its command, will buy some of them, the choice being those to be issued on the Pennsylvania avenue improvement.

Owing to the announced assurance of a fight over the assessment on the improvement of Pennsylvania avenue, it would seem that action on it should be very conservative, but council looks at it from the standpoint of the surety that some one will have to pay the amount, either those assessed or the city and that action may as well be taken now as in the future. It is assured that the great majority of those assessed are going to fight the case. The fight will be inaugurated just as soon as the assessments are forwarded to the people.

As previously stated in the News Review, the property holders will protest against payment of the assessments and before succumbing to the demand of council will carry the matter to common pleas court. The city is ready to make the fight in the courts and is just as sure of a victory as are the property holders.

OF MUCH INTEREST TO ALL OIL MEN

Controversy Over Alleged Contamination of a Stream
Near Columbiana.

Lisbon, November 13.—(Special).—The case of the Salem Iron company, of Leetonia, vs. H. H. Hyland, et al., in which the plaintiff seeks to have made permanent an injunction preventing the defendants from pumping an oil well near Columbiana, came on for trial this morning. The plaintiff charges that the salt water from the oil well has so impregnated the water of Cherry Fork creek, from which the iron company derives its water supply, that the saline sediment is ruining its boilers and machinery. The oil well is about three miles up the stream from the plaintiff company's plant.

The case is an important one and the outcome will be awaited with interest by oil men everywhere. A similar action in the common pleas court of Monroe county, O., resulted in a finding in favor of the oil operators. Several oil companies that are interested in the development of the field in the vicinity of Columbiana, where all have valuable and extensive holdings, will be directly affected by the decision in this case.

Quite an array of legal talent is present on the case, the firm of Billingsley, Clark & DeFord and John D. Morgan, of Leetonia, appearing for the plaintiff and Charles D. Dickinson, of Leetonia, Lev. McQuiston, of Butler, Pa., George J. Wolfe, of Pittsburgh, and James O. Troup, of Bowling Green, for the defendants. It has been intimated that one of the large oil companies is backing the defendants.

Robinson-Armstrong.

The wedding of Miss Frances Robinson and Walter Howard Armstrong was solemnized at the home of the bride, Liverpool street, Wellsville, at 8 o'clock last night by Rev. J. W. Toland, of the M. E. church. Quite a number of friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony. After the ceremony, and congratulations, a wedding supper was served. The groom is a resident of Lisbon, where he is employed at the Firestone Bros.' bank, and has a host of friends. The bride is a talented young lady, a former teacher in the public schools of the county. The couple will reside in Lisbon.

A NEW ISSUE OF BONDS IS BEING ARRANGED FOR

Solicitor Davidson Preparing the Documents
Which Will Call For
$46,000.

THE MONEY TO BE USED TO PAY NOTES

Solicitor George E. Davidson was busy today preparing the assessing and bond ordinances ordered by council for the purpose of getting rid of the outstanding notes given on special improvements. Both will aggregate exactly $46,000 and will be passed by council at its next regular meeting.

Though council has had under contemplation this new issue of bonds for some time, particular interest was not evidenced by the members until last evening, when all were advised through the exclusive publication in the News Review of the clamoring of the local banks for the money loaned by them to the city to pay off the indebtedness on the improvements. The councilmen were somewhat surprised at the sudden turn in the matter, but not much disturbed. They claim that it was never their intention to give out a false impression and that their stand for the truth of this statement is based on the bond ordinance which specified every creditor.

The assessing ordinance will include the following improvements: Pennsylvania avenue, $29,000; sewers, $13,000; Summit Lane, $2,300; Prospect street, $500. To the above amounts will be added in the bond ordinance $1,200 to provide for the money borrowed by council to assist Carnegie library. The bonds will draw 6 per cent interest, the legal rate, says Auditor Davidson, and there will be no trouble whatever experienced in securing takers.

Council confidently anticipates protests on the part of many uninformed

citizens relative to the proposed issue. The protests will be totally disregarded, however, and the bonds will be issued. Council realizes that by turning the notes into bonds a saving of one per cent will be the result and having the power, in fact, being ordered to do so by a provision in the new code, the bonds will be issued without the sanction of persons who may see fit to object.

Knowing that the bonds will be money-makers, it is said that the sinking fund commission which now has about $50,000 at its command, will buy some of them, the choice being those to be issued on the Pennsylvania avenue improvement.

Owing to the announced assurance of a fight over the assessment on the improvement of Pennsylvania avenue, it would seem that action on it should be very conservative, but council looks at it from the standpoint of the surety that some one will have to pay the amount, either those assessed or the city and that action may as well be taken now as in the future. It is assured that the great majority of those assessed are going to fight the case. The fight will be inaugurated just as soon as the assessments are forwarded to the people.

As previously stated in the News Review, the property holders will protest against payment of the assessments and before succumbing to the demand of council will carry the matter to common pleas court. The city is ready to make the fight in the courts and is just as sure of a victory as are the property holders.

THE ART OF CASTING.

Casting is one of the most interesting processes of potting, and is shown in the illustration of figure making department, says an exchange. When a figure of any shape or size has been finished by the modeler it is cut into pieces to be moulded. The mould-maker is most careful to arrange that each part shall be in the most perfect condition when delivered from the mould, and with as little seam as possible. As many as 20 or 30 moulds are often used in the production of a single figure. The china for this process is not used in the clay state, but in a liquid slip like cream. This is poured into the orifice of the mould left for the purpose, and then allowed to stand for a short time. When sufficient slip has adhered to the mould the remainder is poured back into the casting jug. The slip having remained in the mould for some minutes becomes sufficiently solid to enable the workman to handle it. He next proceeds to arrange all the pieces on a slab of plaster before him. All superfluous clay is then trimmed off and some liquid slip is applied to the parts, making a perfect joint, each part being fitted to its proper place, until the whole figure is built up as it was before being moulded. As each joint is made, the superfluous slip is removed with a camel's hair pencil. The article is then propped with various strips of clay having exactly the same shrinkage. It is then ready for the oven. The shrinkage or contraction is a very important change, and is a process of great difficulty. The change of course varies according to the materials used, and the process employed in making. Thus earthenware will not contract as much as porcelain, and a pressed piece not so much as a cast one. Allowance is made for the contraction by the modeler, the design being considerably larger than is required when finished; the shrinkage from the original model to the finished object being sometimes equal to 25 per cent. Up to this stage of the manufacture the ware requires most delicate handling.

COMING CONVENTIONS.

Clayworkers throughout the country are girding up their loins for the fast-approaching national and state conventions. The past season has been a busy one and the air is filled with joyous reports of business done and orders in hand. This industrial activity augurs well for a good attendance at all the conventions and it is to be hoped that the harvest of new members will be a rich one. The yearly opportunity thus presented of mingling with one's brethren of the craft should be a sufficient inducement for all to come into line. The benefits derived are lasting and the interchange of thought invaluable.

The National Brick Manufacturers' association will hold its eighteenth annual convention at Cincinnati from February 1 to 13, inclusive. The first convention of this organization was held in this city in 1886 and an old time revival meeting is anticipated, full of pleasant reminiscences. Make Cincinnati your Mecca this year for sure.

The American Ceramic society will hold its sixth annual meetings at the same time, but in the first few days of the time set aside for this joint convention. The educative work of this society is widely known at home and abroad and the society is a source of pride to all clayworkers. The headquarters for both conventions will be at the Grand hotel. Ample floor space for exhibitive purposes is obtainable on application to the executive committee of the N. B. M. A.

DELEGATES TO BOSTON.

The N. B. of O. P. are represented at the convention of the American Federation of Labor, being held in Boston, by Vice Presidents Hutchins and Van Fossen. Both are capable men and a good report may be expected. Last year at the New Orleans meeting Mr. Hales and President Duffy were the Brotherhood delegates. As announced a few days ago John Reark is there as a delegate from Trades and Labor Council.

NEW FINISHING SCALE.

It is expected that the committees from the jiggermen and finishers, at work on a uniform price list for finishing, will be ready to submit a report soon. It has been stated that nearly every article of jiggered ware has been listed and the scale will likely be submitted to the trade next week. A uniform scale for finishing has long been needed and will be most welcome to the jiggermen. Although the members of the committees have given no word some reductions for the finishers are expected, inasmuch as the arbitration board refused to grant the jiggermen any increase. of the witnesses, both operatives and manufacturers, before the arbitration board, it was frequently admitted that the prices for finishing were out of proportion. For instance a dozen of the present style of festoon plate is finished at one time, where formerly they were finished one at a time. The finishers benefit greatly as a result.

The change of course varies according to the materials used, and the process employed in making. Thus earthenware will not contract as much as porcelain, and a pressed piece not so much as a cast one. Allowance is made for the contraction by the modeler, the design being considerably larger than is required when finished; the shrinkage from the original model to the finished object being sometimes equal to 25 per cent. Up to this stage of the manufacture the ware requires most delicate handling.

COMING CONVENTIONS.

Clayworkers throughout the country are girding up their loins for the fast-approaching national and state conventions. The past season has been a busy one and the air is filled with joyous reports of business done and orders in hand. This industrial activity augurs well for a good attendance at all the conventions and it is to be hoped that the harvest of new members will be a rich one. The yearly opportunity thus presented of mingling with one's brethren of the craft should be a sufficient inducement for all to come into line. The benefits derived are lasting and the interchange of thought invaluable.

The National Brick Manufacturers' association will hold its eighteenth annual convention at Cincinnati from February 1 to 13, inclusive. The first convention of this organization was held in this city in 1886 and an old time revival meeting is anticipated, full of pleasant reminiscences. Make Cincinnati your Mecca this year for sure.

The American Ceramic society will hold its sixth annual meetings at the same time, but in the first few days of the time set aside for this joint convention. The educative work of this society is widely known at home and abroad and the society is a source of pride to all clayworkers. The headquarters for both conventions will be at the Grand hotel. Ample floor space for exhibitive purposes is obtainable on application to the executive committee of the N. B. M. A.

DELEGATES TO BOSTON.

The N. B. of O. P. are represented at the convention of the American Federation of Labor, being held in Boston, by Vice Presidents Hutchins and Van Fossen. Both are capable men and a good report may be expected. Last year at the New Orleans meeting Mr. Hailes and President Duffy were the Brotherhood delegates. As announced a few days ago John Reark is there as a delegate from Trades and Labor Council.

NEW FINISHING SCALE.

It is expected that the committees from the jiggermen and finishers, at work on a uniform price list for finishing, will be ready to submit a report soon. It has been stated that nearly every article of jiggered ware has been listed and the scale will likely be submitted to the trade next week. A uniform scale for finishing has long been needed and will be most welcome to the jiggermen. Although the members of the committees have given no word some reductions for the finishers are expected, inasmuch as the arbitration board refused to grant the jiggermen any increase. of the witnesses, both operatives and manufacturers, before the arbitration board, it was frequently admitted that the prices for finishing were out of proportion. For instance a dozen of the present style of festoon plate is finished at one time, where formerly they were finished one at a time. The finishers benefit greatly as a result. The enactment of this uniform scale will do away with one of the several inequalities that have long existed in the trade.

BAD BOYS CAUGHT AT THEIR PRANKS

Officer Spence Secured Names of Those Who Have Annoyed St.
George Street People.

While serving as a patrolman in the place of Officer Fisher, while the latter was on duty down town, Officer Spence accomplished one act that won him the everlasting gratitude of the residents of lower St. George street. For a number of weeks a small army of small boys have been causing no end of annoyance by running across the porches, knocking at the doors, ringing door bells, and such other like acts, in which they delight. They were so fleet of foot that the best efforts failed to disclose their identity. A few night ago Officer Spence was telephoned for and soon had a line on the culprits.

As a result of his visit to the scene the names of several well known youngsters were handed to Officer Fisher, and if the people along the street wish their names will be sent to Mayor Weaver.

STACEY COMPANY WELL IS DUE IN TODAY

East End Stockholders Greatly Interested in the Outcome of Their Venture.

As announced in the News Review a few days ago, the well of the Stacey Oil company, located about two miles west of Toronto, is expected today. The company is composed of East End and Steubenville stockholders, who all along have been encouraged by the prospects of a good strike.

Among the East End stockholders is Attorney J. E. Davis, one of the most determined and pluckiest of the oil operators in this locality. Attorney Davis has great faith in the field and believes that a paying well will soon be found. He left this morning for Toronto to witness the coming in of the well.

NOW OUT OF DANGER

Quarantine About to Be Raised from the Prescott Home in the East End.

Mrs. William Prescott, of Pennsylvania avenue, who has been confined to her home for the past three weeks under quarantine, is now out of danger and in a few days will be entirely well. Sanitary Policeman Burgess, who, in his official capacity, has had charge of the quarantine, stated this morning that the trained nurse provided by the health board, would be dismissed today. The house will be fumigated either Monday or Tuesday.

Mr. Prescott, who has been confined to the house owing to the quarantine restrictions, will probably escape the infection. He has been exposed to the disease for a period of 25 days, and it is now thought that the danger to him is past.

Missionary Meeting.

The Missionary society of the Second Presbyterian church met yesterday afternoon at the parsonage on Pennsylvania avenue. The attendance was unusually good and the meeting was full of interest. A number of ladies from the missionary society of the First church were present, and there was an interchange of ideas as to the conduct and detail of mission work.

No East End Games.

For the first time since the inauguration of the foot ball season no games are announced for East End gridirons for Saturday. The Tiger Athletic club, as previously announced, has renounced Rugby foot ball for the association game, and the Royal Tigers are not in condition to play. Most of the enthusiasts will attend the big game between the Rovers and Chester for a purse of $100 at the West End park.

Loss Estimated at $300.

Captain Terrence, of the fire station, gathered the necessary data this morning for his report to the state fire commissioner on the blaze that partly destroyed the warehouse in the rear of the East End Hardware company's establishment. The loss is given by the proprietor, J. L. Fulton, as $300 and the cause of the fire unknown. There was no insurance.

EAST END AFFAIRS.

Dr. F. F. Davis and wife, of St. Pa.

George street, are spending the day in the country.

Postmaster Will Baird continues quite ill with the grip.

Street Commissioner Frank Dickey made an inspection of the East End streets yesterday afternoon.

Rev. N. M. Crowe, of the Second Presbyterian church, is expected home from New Castle today, where he has been visiting his mother.

Sanitary Policeman Burgess was called to the East End this morning to investigate a number of complaints about the unsanitary condition of certain localities.

J. H. Smith, the well known barber, who has been confined to his home on Pennsylvania avenue with sickness, was able to be out this morning. It will be several days yet before he can return to work.

Now Kind of Safe Insurance.

For twenty five cents you can insure yourself and family against any serious results from an attack of bowel complaint during the summer months. That is the price of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, a medicine that can always be depended upon even in the most severe and dangerous cases. It is equally valuable for children and adults. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. This remedy has relieved more pain and suffering and saved the lives of more people than any other medicine in the world. It is almost sure to be needed before the summer is over. Buy it now. Cured Piles After 40 Years. Mr. C. Haney, of Geneva, O., had the piles for 40 years. Doctors and dollars could do him no lasting good. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him permanently. STACEY COMPANY WELL IS DUE IN TODAY

East End Stockholders Greatly Interested in the Outcome of Their Venture.

As announced in the News Review a few days ago, the well of the Stacey Oil company, located about two miles west of Toronto, is expected in today. The company is composed of East End and Steubenville stockholders, who all along have been encouraged by the prospects of a good strike.

Among the East End stockholders is Attorney J. E. Davis, one of the most determined and pluckiest of the oil operators in this locality. Attorney Davis has great faith in the field and believes that a paying well will soon be found. He left this morning for Toronto to witness the coming in of the well.

NOW OUT OF DANGER

Quarantine About to Be Raised from the Prescott Home in the East End.

Mrs. William Prescott, of Pennsylvania avenue, who has been confined to her home for the past three weeks under quarantine, is now out of danger and in a few days will be entirely well. Sanitary Policeman Burgess, who, in his official capacity, has had charge of the quarantine, stated this morning that the trained nurse provided by the health board, would be dismissed today. The house will be fumigated either Monday or Tuesday.

Mr. Prescott, who has been confined to the house owing to the quarantine restrictions, will probably escape the infection. He has been exposed to the disease for a period of 25 days, and it is now thought that the danger to him is past.

Missionary Meeting.

The Missionary society of the Second Presbyterian church met yesterday afternoon at the parsonage on Pennsylvania avenue. The attendance was unusually good and the meeting was full of interest. A number of ladies from the missionary society of the First church were present, and there was an interchange of ideas as to the conduct and detail of mission work.

No East End Games.

For the first time since the inauguration of the foot ball season no games are announced for East End gridirons for Saturday. The Tiger Athletic club, as previously announced, has renounced Rugby foot ball for the association game, and the Royal Tigers are not in condition to play. Most of the enthusiasts will attend the big game between the Rovers and Chester for a purse of $100 at the West End park.

Loss Estimated at $300.

Captain Terrence, of the fire station, gathered the necessary data this morning for his report to the state fire commissioner on the blaze that partly destroyed the warehouse in the rear of the East End Hardware company's establishment. The loss is given by the proprietor, J. L. Fulton, as $300 and the cause of the fire unknown. There was no insurance.

New Kind of Life Insurance.

The twenty five cents you can insure yourself and family against any serious results from an attack of bowel complaint during the summer months. That is the price of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, a medicine that can always be depended upon even in the most severe and dangerous cases. It is equally valuable for children and adults. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. This remedy has relieved more pain and suffering and saved in lives of more people than any other medicine in the world. It is almost sure to be needed before the summer is over. Buy it now.  TWELVE PAGES.

The Business association of East
 Liverpool is taking up the question
 of giving credit and considering it in a practical way. It is the aim to establish rules which shall not be one-sided in their benefits, but which shall work to the good of the customer as well as the dealer. It is a fact, conceded by all candid observers, that credit-giving, and especially long terms
 of credit, lead to reckless buying on
 the part of many thoughtless people.
 If the day of settlement is placed too far distant, the customer, even if perfectly honest, is liable to buy beyond
 his means, trusting blindly to the future for the means of payment. With the expiration of the term of credit
 only a few days distant, the transaction is virtually one for cash, and is considered more seriously. Long credits are not economy, either for the buyer or the seller. Whether it will be found advisable in practice to insist that all accounts be settled each
 "pay" or more grace be given, remains to be seen; but certain it is that some curtailment is reasonable
 and necessary and can meet with no
 valid objections from those who desire to meet their honest debts.

Speculation is being indulged in as to whether George B. McClellan, mayor-elect of New York, could ever serve as president, as he was born abroad, while his parents were traveling in Europe. The supreme court
 may have to pass upon a case like this some time, but never on this one.

Tom Johnson is not likely to gain
 much favor from his party by assert-

 the Democracy is for sale is not calculated to enhance its waning reputation.

The Business association of East
Liverpool is taking up the question
of giving credit and considering it in
a practical way. It is the aim to establish rules which shall not be one-
sided in their benefits, but which shall
work to the good of the customer as well as the dealer. It is a fact, conceded by all candid observers, that
credit-giving, and especially long terms
of credit, lead to reckless buying on
the part of many thoughtless people.
If the day of settlement is placed too
far distant, the customer, even if perfectly honest, is liable to buy beyond
his means, trusting blindly to the future for the means of payment. With
the expiration of the term of credit
only a few days distant, the transaction is virtually one for cash, and is considered more seriously. Long credits are not economy, either for the buyer or the seller. Whether it will be found advisable in practice to insist that all accounts be settled each
"pay" or more grace be given, remains to be seen; but certain it is
that some curtailment is reasonable
and necessary and can meet with no
valid objections from those who desire to meet their honest debts.

Speculation is being indulged in as to whether George B. McClellan, mayor-elect of New York, could ever serve as president, as he was born
abroad, while his parents were traveling in Europe. The supreme court
may have to pass upon a case like
this some time, but never on this
one.

Tom Johnson is not likely to gain
much favor from his party by asserting that the Republicans have bought it up. Asserting that the remnant of the Democracy is for sale is not calculated to enhance its waning reputation.

A New York man, who is at the head

Some Democrats seem to have the notion that the extra session of con-

them with political capital.

he does not own the earth without

WELLSVILLE TAUGHT A LESSON

A Son And Another Man Eager to Get Hold of Moore's $600. Three men, who were considerably under the influence of liquor, got into a row late yesterday afternoon. An old man, Madison Moore, of Beaver Falls, Pa., came to Wellsville with a check of deposit for $600 from a Beaver Falls bank, which was found to be good. The son, Ransen, and Charles Winters tried to negotiate the certificate and get it cashed and started several business houses. They were drinking, and Winters seemed especially anxious to get hold of some of Moore's wealth.

The police were put on their track and Officer Elliott, assisted by deputy, rounded up all three and locked them up. Moore and son were given a hearing this morning and settled. The old man said he wanted to give his boy $50 to buy a suit of clothes, but he had given his sanction to negotiate the paper, which they were successful in doing. The old man was probably saved from loss of money by the arrest. He and his son left for Beaver Falls this morning much wiser from their experience. All

He was taken to his boarding house on Eighteenth street and Dr. Noble, the company surgeon called, who says the nose is completely mashed and cut to the bone, also the bones much shattered. The member was patched up and stitched as best as he could, but the injury will leave awful scars.

WELLSVILLE

TAUGHT A LESSON

A Son And Another Man Eager to Get Hold of Moore's $600. Three men, who were considerably under the influence of liquor, got into trouble late yesterday afternoon. An old man, Madison Moore, of Beaver Falls, Pa., came to Wellsville with his son. He had in his pocket a certificate of deposit for $600 from a Beaver Falls bank, which was found to be good. The son, Ransen, and Charles Winters tried to negotiate the certificate and get it cashed and wanted several business houses. They were drinking, and Winters seemed especially anxious to get hold of some of Moore's wealth. The police were put on their track and Officer Elliott, assisted by deputies, rounded up all three and locked them up. Moore and son were given a hearing this morning and settled. The old man said he wanted to give his boy $50 to buy a suit of clothes, and he had given his sanction to negotiate the paper, which they were not successful in doing. The old man was probably saved from loss of money by the arrest. He and his son left for Beaver Falls this morning much wiser from their experience. All

THE OLD RELIABLE

Absolutely Pure
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

YOUNG SWITCHMAN HURT

His Nose Struck By a Switch Lever and Mashed and Broken.

W. T. Milhoan, a young switchman, employed in the yards at Twentieth street, met with a most painful accident last night that will disfigure him for life. He was attempting to throw a switch in front of an approaching pony engine, but was not in time to be successful.

The switch sprang by the weight of the engine, the lever flying up and striking him with terrific force across the nose, nearly cutting it off. He was taken to his boarding house on Eighteenth street and Dr. Noble, the company surgeon called, who says the nose is completely mashed and cut to the bone, also the bones much shattered. The member was patched up and stitched as best as he could, but the injury will leave awful scars.

$25,000 IN BONDS SOLD

A Cincinnati Firm Contracts to Take the Issue Which is Now Ready.

The $25,000 city bonds, says City Auditor C. R. McGregor, have been sold to Seaboard & Mayer, of Cincinnati. The bonds have arrived and are being prepared by Auditor McGregor. There are $2,000 of bonds for the Lisbon road paving, and $2,000 for the big storm sewer on McQueen's Run included in the lot. It is likely that the adjourned session of council will be called by Mayor Fogo either Saturday or Monday evening next, when the long delayed pay roll of the safety and service departments will be met, as well as other bills that have been awaiting payment.

There is a large amount of accumulated new and old business to attend to and council will likely have an extended session.

P. H. C. Meeting.

The Protected Home Circle lodge, Fidelity Circle, No. 43, of Wellsville, held a splendid session in McKenzie's hall, Ninth street, last night, and initiated several new members. Quite a number of visitors were in attendance from other towns and cities and several speeches on the good of the order were made by foreign and local speakers. The circle is preparing for a grand banquet and social to be given some time in December, and an extended program consisting of addresses, music, recitations and other features is now in course of preparation for the event.

Brakeman's Arm Broken.

L. G. Spencer, of 220 Eighth street, a fireman on the main line of the C & P., had his right arm badly broken and mangled Wednesday while repairing on his engine at Magnolia siding. The arm was caught between the piston rod and the sand pump and terribly crushed. Dr. Noble, of Wellsville, is treating the injured member, and it is terribly swollen since the accident. It will lay Mr. Spencer off duty for some months.

Bunkoing Steubenville.

The bunko plumber artist who worked West End housewives this week turned up at Steubenville yesterday and attempted the change racket, using counterfeit money also in his deals. He succeeded in cheating a number of the housewives of that city out of $5 bills. His story was exactly the same as that related in the West End, he claiming to be an employe of the water works department.

Bridging the Run

Street Commissioner A. B. Culp and force of workmen are engaged in building a bridge across the big McQueen's Run trunk sewer on Maple avenue. Numerous big trees have been cut down, and a great deal of grading will have to be done to make proper approaches to the bridge on either side.

Secured Another Home.

Mrs. Dr. L. B. Smith and daughter, who have been making their home with the former's father, James McClain, of upper Main street, and whose home and household goods were entirely burned out at Toronto two weeks ago, returned home yesterday, having secured another house to go to housekeeping again.

Body Sent to Pittsburgh.

The body of J. T. Walsh was shipped to the Pennsylvania company officials at the union depot, Pittsburgh, this morning, who will make an effort to find out the home of the deceased. He had two switchmen's cards from New York state, but now it has been traced that his home is in a Pennsylvania town, above Pittsburgh.

Arrested for Shooting Chickens.

Constable McIntosh, of Squire McLean's court, out in Yellow Creek township, arrested Arthur Badley, a pottery worker, yesterday, for the alleged shooting of some chickens in front of the home of a farmer named Boyd one day this week. He was given a hearing yesterday.

Social at Beaver.

A merry company of Eighteenth street young gentlemen and ladies leaves tonight to attend a social function at Beaver, Pa., this evening. Among the number are Misses Maud Hayes, Blanche Myler, Eva Burnett and Loretta Digar.

Wreck Train Called.

The Wellsville wreck train and crew were summoned to East Goshen on the Tuscarawas branch at 8 o'clock this morning to replace a badly derailed and loaded car.

Defeated Last Night By the

ONLY ONE FIELD GOAL

Was the Best the Visitors Could Do
Out of Half a Dozen Tries—Local Players Piled 28 Field Goals With Apparent Ease.

That the East Liverpool basket ball players are vastly superior to the large majority, composing the teams of this section within a radius of a 100 miles or more, was shown, beyond a possibility of a doubt, at the game last night at Rock Springs park pavilion with the New Castle team.
Without any apparent effort the visitors were defeated by the unusual score of 63 to 8, in the presence of 500 enthusiastic spectators.

The victory was as easy that only the good work of the local players stands out as a feature. The visitors learned early in the struggle that they were outclassed and played as though they realized that defeat was a certainty. The game abounded in pretty plays, however, most of which were made by the locals. The proportion of field and foul goals scored by the locals show how well they played. In fact the bulwark of the local team is the ability of the local players to hit the basket from difficult positions, in spite of the interference of their opponents. Chadwick was the only one of the local five who failed to get a field goal, Allison leading with 11.

The claim of the visitors that they were compelled to come without several of the best players may or may not be true. Not one of those who appeared last night could compare favorably with any member of the local team. They are clearly in another and slower class, and if they represent the standard of western Pennsylvania the Chadwick gave the visitors several chances for field goals by leaving the basket unguarded, a risk that he took owing to the big lead his team had.

It resulted in little advantage, however, as only one goal out of half a dozen tries was the best the visitors could do. Andrews made the throw.

Rigby made the first goal for the locals in the first three minutes of play and 11 more were made in the first half. Six fouls were tried in the first half, four by Chadwick and two by Rigby. Chadwick scored two and Rigby one, making the score for the first half 27 to 4.

The locals scored with even greater ease in the second half, much to the delight of the spectators, who were enjoying the contest immensely. Powell took Rigby's place at center in this half, the lineup of the visitors remaining the same. In this half Allison played a star game, taking the ball to the visitors' basket at will and scoring 7 field goals. Bloor scored 4, Powell 3 and Watkin 2.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recom-

in so many ways, in hospital work, in private every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a

READY FOR BIG
GAME TOMORROW

BOTH TEAMS IN FINE FETTER
AND HIGH SPIRITS.

Big Crowd Will See the Battle at the West End Park for the $100 Purse.

The prompt way in which the Rovers snatched up the challenge of the Chester team only goes to show that they were equally anxious with the challengers for a game that means something to the winner. It did not take Manager Hughes, of the Rovers, and Manager Frank Riley, of the Chester eleven, long to settle upon the details and deposit the purse.

The Rovers have friends and admirers in numbers great enough to have placed ten times the amount of the purse had it been necessary, but they were not even called upon.
The boys have a snug sum in their treasury yet untouched by the losses they have encountered in conducting the games at the West End park.
Then every one of the players was willing and anxious to chip in to make up the amount. The same confidence can also be found among the Chester players.

Football enthusiasts were well pleased at the selection of a date for the game so near at hand and they will be out in full force tomorrow. Reports from the camps of the contest-ing teams are that both are in fine shape. The Rovers have had a rest since election day and have been making good use of the time with practice. The several players who were bruised and somewhat crippled are in the best of condition again.

Arb, who has been out of the game since his fall in a kiln several weeks ago at the Burford pottery, is in playing trim again and will likely be in the game. Captain Hardy has been perfecting several new plays that he hopes to use for nice gains.

The Chester team may find itself at some disadvantage because the club is comparatively young and the players are not familiar with each other.
Hard practice can overcome this, however. Manager Riley has a reputation as a coach and will doubtless have his team well drilled. His players will probably outweigh the Rovers in the aggregate.

While the officials have not been announced it can be depended upon that they will be competent and fair.
Neither team would seek an advantage from a biased official. The Rovers have arranged for the services of a couple of policemen to keep the field clear and will start the game promptly at the advertised time, 4:15.

FOUL STRIKE RULE
TO BE ABOLISHED

President Ben Johnson States That
All Leagues Will Return to Old Style.

The opening of the base ball season in American league towns last spring saw the introduction there of a feature adopted from the rival organization which did not meet with popular or expert approval at the time and for which failure was freely predicted.
The so-called foul strike rule has received a fair trial and is no more strongly intrenched in public favor than at first. For years the demand has been for more batting, yet this rule militated directly against this result and made the pitcher more than ever the dominating figure of the game. Its adoption defeated the very end to which base ball legislation of many years had been directed.

But its time seems to have come and there will be few, in this city at least, to mourn its exit. President Johnson, of the American league, announces that the foul strike rule will be abolished this winter and that all the leagues will go back to the former style of play, which means more free batting, a feature that always pleases patrons of the game.

This announcement is a notable victory for the Plaindealer and for the Boston Herald, two papers that refused to accept the new rule as necessary medicine. These two papers fought the obnoxious innovation from start to finish and were generously supported by the base ball public in their respective cities. Both obtained thousands of protests, which were forwarded to league headquarters and must have had much to do with bringing about the result just announced.

GILLIGAN IN TOWN

A Ball Player Whose Services Are in Great Demand for Next Year.

"Red" Gilligan, who played short with the Manchester team of the New England league during the season just ended, was in the city today, the guest of "Bobby" Magee. Gilligan's home is in Wheeling and he expects to winter there. He played in excellent form last season and can return to Manchester if he so desires. He said today, however, that he has no definite plans for the future, and may accept one of several offers.

Providence would like to have Gilligan, then he has two other good propositions, either of which would be an improvement over his last contract.
Piqua is in need of a manager and Waynesburg, Pa., is in the same fix.
"Red" may sign up with one of these teams. He stated today that he had always had a hankering for a season or two of independent base ball, and he may gratify the wish. Gilligan is a fast player, having been playing professional ball for eight years.

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

E. E. Smathers is said to be $1,000-

Champion Jeffries does not think that Munroe's defeat of Maher entitles him to battle for the championship.

Many of the best fighters are hot at Munroe's scalp and he will have to some lively side-stepping to avoid the challenges.

Al. Selbach will get his $4,000 playing with Washington next season.
His contract is good for another year.

Jack Monroe is training for his fight with Peter Mahar on the football field. Pete is also not bad at the tackle game.

P. J. Dwyer, manager of the Meas an active racing concern, has signed from office.

Grab a Diamond
For a Quarter

ON Saturday & Monday
Nov. 14 and 16

We propose to give to the people of East Liverpool one of the most novel exhibitions ever presented in this city, and at the same time will give them an opportunity to secure valuable diamond rings, solid gold rings, and other valuable jewelry, for a mere song. We do this to more effectually advertise our business and to establish the fact that we do exactly what we say. We want East Liverpool people to know that when they read our advertisements, that they may come to our store and have them fulfilled.

OUR PLAN IS THIS:

We will place on sale a number of packages, wrapped so the contents are not known, and will then give any person an opportunity to select one of these packages for a quarter. Every package will contain some article of jewelry worth at least twenty-five cents. Among the packages will be a number that will contain

GENUINE DIAMOND RINGS AND SOLID GOLD RINGS

Each package, as purchased, or "grabbed," will be opened by the purchaser in our store, and the persons who are fortunate enough to receive the diamond rings will have their names published in the daily papers.

This Is Not a Lottery

Remember that every purchaser will at least receive an article of jewelry worth the price paid for the package, and some will receive diamond rings, solid gold rings, and other valuable jewelry.

Without any apparent effort the visitors were defeated by the unusual score of 63 to 8, in the presence of 500 enthusiastic spectators.

The victory was as easy that only the good work of the local players stands out as a feature. The visitors learned early in the struggle that they were outclassed and played as though they realized that defeat was a certainty. The game abounded in pretty plays, however, most of which were made by the locals. The proportion of field and foul goals scored by the locals show how well they played. In fact the bulwark of the local team is the ability of the local players to hit the basket from difficult positions, in spite of the interference of their opponents. Chadwick was the only one of the local five who failed to get a field goal, Allison leading with 11.

The claim of the visitors that they were compelled to come without several of the best players may or may not be true. Not one of those who appeared last night could compare favorably with any member of the local team. They are clearly in another and slower class, and if they represent the standard of western Pennsylvania the Chadwick gave the visitors several chances for field goals by leaving the basket unguarded, a risk that he took owing to the big lead his team had. It resulted in little advantage, however, as only one goal out of half a dozen tries was the best the visitors could do. Andrews made the throw.

Rigby made the first goal for the locals in the first three minutes of play and 11 more were made in the first half. Six fouls were tried in the first half, four by Chadwick and two by Rigby. Chadwick scored two and Rigby one, making the score for the first half 27 to 4.

The locals scored with even greater ease in the second half, much to the delight of the spectators, who were enjoying the contest immensely. Powell took Rigby's place at center in this half, the lineup of the visitors remaining the same. In this half Allison played a star game, taking the ball to the visitors' basket at will and scoring 7 field goals. Bloor scored 4, Powell 3 and Watkin 2.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century, discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. READY FOR BIG
GAME TOMORROW

BOTH TEAMS IN FINE FETTER
AND HIGH SPIRITS.

Big Crowd Will See the Battle at the West End Park for the $100 Purse.

The prompt way in which the Rovers snapped up the challenge of the Chester team only goes to show that they were equally anxious with the challengers for a game that means something to the winner. It did not take Manager Hughes, of the Rovers, and Manager Frank Riley, of the Chester eleven, long to settle upon the details and deposit the purse.

The Rovers have friends and admirers in numbers great enough to have placed ten times the amount of the purse had it been necessary, but they were not even called upon. The boys have a snug sum in their treasury yet untouched by the losses they have encountered in conducting the games at the West End park. Then every one of the players was willing and anxious to chip in to make up the amount. The same confidence can also be found among the Chester players.

Football enthusiasts were well pleased at the selection of a date for the game so near at hand and they will be out in full force tomorrow. Reports from the camps of the contesting teams are that both are in fine shape. The Rovers have had a rest since election day and have been making good use of the time with practice. The several players who were bruised and somewhat crippled are in the best of condition again. Arb, who has been out of the game since his fall in a kiln several weeks ago at the Burford pottery, is in playing trim again and will likely be in the game. Captain Hardy has been perfecting several new plays that he hopes to use for nice gains.

The Chester team may find itself at some disadvantage because the club is comparatively young and the players are not familiar with each other. Hard practice can overcome this, however. Manager Riley has a reputation as a coach and will doubtless have his team well drilled. His players will probably outweigh the Rovers in the aggregate.

While the officials have not been announced it can be depended upon that they will be competent and fair. Neither team would seek an advantage from a biased official. The Rovers have arranged for the services of a couple of policemen to keep the field clear and will start the game promptly at the advertised time, 4:15.

FOUL STRIKE RULE
TO BE ABOLISHED

President San Johnson States That
All Leagues Will Return to
Old Style.

The opening of the base ball season in American league towns last spring saw the introduction there of a feature adopted from the rival organization which did not meet with popular or expert approval at the time and for which failure was freely predicted. The so-called foul strike rule has received a fair trial and is no more strongly entrenched in public favor than at first. For years the demand has been for more batting, yet this rule militated directly against this result and made the pitcher more than over the dominating figure of the game. Its adoption defeated the very end to which base ball legislation of many years had been directed.

But its time seems to have come and there will be few, in this city at least, to mourn its exit. President Johnson, of the American league, announces that the foul strike rule will be abolished this winter and that all the leagues will go back to the former style of play, which means more free batting, a feature that always pleases patrons of the game.

This announcement is a notable victory for the Plaindealer and for the Boston Herald, two papers that refused to accept the new rule as necessary medicine. These two papers fought the obnoxious innovation from start to finish and were generously supported by the base ball public in their respective cities. Both obtained thousands of protests, which were forwarded to league headquarters and must have had much to do with bringing about the result just announced.

"Red" Gilligan, who played short with the Manchester team of the New England league during the season just ended, was in the city today, the guest of "Bobby" Magee. Gilligan's home is in Wheeling and he expects to winter there. He played in excellent form last season and can return to Manchester if he so desires. He said today, however, that he has no definite plans for the future, and may accept one of several offers.

Providence would like to have Gilligan, then he has two other good propositions, either of which would be an improvement over his last contract. Piqua is in need of a manager and Waynesburg, Pa., is in the same fix.

"Red" may sign up with one of these teams. He stated today that he had always had a hankering for a season or two of independent base ball, and he may gratify the wish. Gilligan is a fast player, having been playing professional ball for eight years.

HORSE FELL ON HIM BREAKING HIS LEG

John Groh, of Cadiz, Meets With a Serious Mishap in Wellsville.

John Groh, a hostler of Cadiz, arrived in Wellsville yesterday morning, having driven a number of horses from Cadiz, for Rinehart's livery stable on lower Main street. One of the horses became sick and fell down. Groh undertook to get the animal on its feet, when the animal reared up and fell over on him, breaking his right leg between the knee and the ankle, making an unusually bad fracture.

Dr. Campbell, of the West End, was called and did all possible for the injured man. He was brought on a cot last night to city hall, and Mayor Fogo had him placed in the hose house and provided an attendant for him. As he is a resident of Harrison county, Mayor Fogo has reported the case to the township trustees, and it is probable that Groh will be taken to the infirmary, and the Harrison county poor directors will have to pay the score.

Groh, when he arrived here, was paid off by Rinehart and was considerably intoxicated when the accident happened. After being brought up to city hall he was very reticent about his name and particulars of the accident, and said he did not want his employer at Cadiz to find out that he was injured. It was not until the mayor questioned him as to his home and financial condition that he revealed the true state of affairs.

Married at Moundsville.

Earl Burns, formerly car tracer on the C. & P., and brother of E. G. Burns, claim agent of the Cleveland division of the C. & P., was married Tuesday at high noon to Miss Helen Barrett, of Moundsville, W. Va., at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. Mr. Schoub, of Moundsville. Fifty invited guests attended the ceremony, and a splendid wedding repast followed. Mr. and Mrs. Burns left Wednesday for Hartford City, Ind., where Mr. Burns has accepted the position of cashier for a gas company of that city. The groom was born and raised in Toronto.

CROWDS CAME TO SEE

GRAND OPENING AT THE SURPRISE CLOTHING HOUSE.

Barely Half Who Desired to Witness the Attraction Could Gain Admission.

Barely one-half of the people who desired to attend the grand opening at the Surprise Clothing House last evening were able to gain admission. The affair had been carefully planned and well advertised, so that little remained to be looked after save turning out. Haines' band was present and the musical program rendered was all that could be desired.

Recently Mr. Isaac Lang, the enterprising proprietor, has been engaged in having the establishment remodeled in order to permit the carrying of a larger stock. How well he has succeeded was demonstrated to the satisfaction of every one last night. The mammoth store room has been so improved and enlarged that the management can carry in stock and display in a satisfactory manner the largest line of clothing and gent's furnishings to be found in any one establishment in this section of the state.

The opening was a complete success in all that the word implies, and hundreds who were anxious to obtain a view of the interior were compelled to give up the attempt. The ladies who attended were given a handsomely decorated plate as a souvenir, while the men received an ingeniously constructed key ring. The decorations were most beautiful and attracted universal attention. Not a detail of this task was omitted. From the remotest corner to the perfectly constructed show windows, the decorations and dressing was as near perfection as human skill could make them. This work was executed by A. H. Abrams, Frank Little and Charley Winetroub, three of the most skillful window decorators in Ohio, and their work reflects credit upon themselves as well as the establishment which employs them.

Those who failed to attend the opening last night have a cordial invitation to call in at any time and inspect the largest and best stock in the two states. Mr. Lang, the genial proprietor, was not surprised at the big crowds. He is a thorough business man, and his long experience has taught him that real merit wins every time, and knowing that his extensive establishment, and mammoth stock of goods could not fail to be appreciated by the East Liverpool people, why should he be surprised.

Go Prepared.

In preparing for your summer outing a little forethought may save you an end of trouble. Mr. John H. Manly, a dry goods merchant, of Belleville, R. I., while packing an outfit for camping a few weeks on Narragansett Bay, put in a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for emergency use. The second day in camp his little boy was taken with cramp colic. The first dose of this remedy gave relief and the second dose effected a cure. Think of the pain and suffering this boy would have had to endure without this remedy at hand to relieve him. Such cases often result fatally. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

THE YATES NOVELTY STORE

20TH YEAR. NO. 267.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1903.

TWO CENTS.

ABOUT INFECTIOUS DISEASES

The Nature of These Ailments and Symptoms By Which They May Be Detected.

Dr. Grimes, the writer of the article which appears below, has studied in three leading schools of medicine. He is a graduate of the old school and an under-graduate of the eclectic school and has had great success in a practice of over 20 years, not having lost a case of typhoid fever for over five years, though he has treated quite a number. He has also had quite an experience with smallpox, and other contagious diseases, with equally good results.

The probabilities are, from the general conditions of the country, that as cold weather advances this vicinity as well as many others, will have more or less smallpox to contend with. And as scarlet fever and measles germs are always lurking around looking for some fertile soil in which to show themselves, a few remarks to the public as regards the most prominent symptoms of the three diseases, as well as the symptoms which serve to differentiate or distinguish them in their forming stage would be appropriate.

Four varieties of smallpox are recognized: The discrete, of moderate severity; the confluent, of great severity; the hemorrhagic or malignant, and varioloid, or smallpox as modified by vaccination.

The initial symptoms of smallpox after an incubation period ranging from eight to fifteen days, usually begins with a chill in adults and a convulsion very often in children; followed by intense headache, excessive pain in the small of the back, nausea and vomiting.

The temperature rises rapidly the first 48 hours, the face is flushed, eyes bright, with generally more or less delirium. The initial fever continues high until the third or fourth day, when a decided remission occurs, lasting until the seventh or eighth day, when it again rises. This is called the fever of suppuration, fluctuating more or less, and in favorable cases it falls to the normal about the eighteenth day of the disease.

The characteristic eruptions appear on the third or fourth day of the disease, as small, red spots, first on the forehead and wrists, gradually extending to other parts of the body. The rash is at first macular, rapidly changing to rounded papules, feeling like shot under the skin.

About the fifth or sixth day these change to vesicles and about the eighth day they are converted into pustules, each one surrounded by a red areola, and the intervening skin swollen. At this time the fever again rises and the general symptoms reappear. About the twelfth day scabs or crusts begin to form, and in uncomplicated cases all the symptoms begin to abate.

In the confluent form all the symptoms are more intense; the pustules coalesce, covering the surface as one solid crust. In the hemorrhagic form, sometimes called black smallpox, all the symptoms are similar to the confluent form until the stage of pustulation, when the pock becomes filled with blood, with hemorrhage from the mucous membranes of the lungs, stomach, bowels, or kidneys, and death generally closes the scene by the ninth day.

Scarlet fever is essentially a disease of childhood, and few persons will take it after the age of 20. Scarlet fever has been divided into three forms—simple, anginous and malignant, differing in their intensity, severity of symptoms and fatality. Usually six to eight days elapse after exposure, before the disease makes its appearance, and is usually ushered in with a chill, followed with high fever, nausea and vomiting, pain in the head, and back, sore throat and difficulty in swallowing. All the tissues of the throat are inflamed and swollen; the tongue is covered with little red papilla resembling a strawberry. This is called the strawberry tongue of scarlet fever and is one of the diagnostic signs of the disease.

At the end of the first or beginning of the second day, the rash appears first on the neck and chest, whence it spreads over the whole body, usually within the next 24 hours. From a distance the skin looks uniformly and brilliantly scarlet, but on close inspection the rash is seen to consist of fine closely set red points, the intervening skin being diffusely red. The rash persists from two to four days, and slowly disappears. In favorable cases the fever gradually falls as the rash disappears, so that by the eighth day it reaches the normal.

These are the general symptoms of the disease in the simple form. In the other two varieties all the symptoms are increased in severity, and may be to such an extent in the malignant form as to cause death in from 24 to 36 hours, even before the rash has had time to appear.

Measles is an acute, highly contagious disease and in from seven to fourteen days after exposure the disease is ushered in with chilliness, sneezing, watery eyes, drowsiness and cough. Headache and vomiting may be present. The eruption appears on the fourth day, first upon the face as small red flattened papules, which grow larger and invades the trunk and extremities. The countenance has a mottled, swollen appearance, which with the reddened eyes, and general catarrhal condition, affords a very characteristic facies. The rash can be seen upon the mucous surfaces of the mouth and throat, very often before it is visible on the surface. The single point of eruption much resembles a mosquito bite. The points of eruption generally coalesce, so as to present larger patches of blotches.

It requires from two to three days for the full appearance of the eruption. During the time the eruption is coming upon the surface, the fever is higher than before. The general symptoms do not lessen until the sixth or seventh day, when the rash begins to fade, and the catarrhal symptoms slowly disappear.

These are the symptoms of an ordinary case of measles. In the hemorrhagic form, or as it is sometimes called the black measles, all the symptoms are increased in severity with hemorrhages from various organs as in hemorrhagic smallpox.

county reported for many months.

The price was $13,000 and was paid in cash at the National Exchange bank in Steubenville. William Leas, of Annapolis, was the seller of the tract which is known as the Thomas Taylor farm, and the negotiations were consummated direct between buyer and seller without any middlemen.

The property beside being average good farming land, is underlaid with several veins of coal, and has at least 2,000,000 feet of fine timber on it. The land is situated on the Town Fork of Yellow Creek, adjacent to the surveyed coal roads between the Ohio river and Bergholz, and is less than six miles from the C. & P. railroad at Hammondsville.

Mr. McLain will sell the timber and hold the coal and surface for future developments, and there is little doubt that he will make a handsome bunch of money out of the investment, as he is one of the most successful farmers and business men of the county.

FIRST RAILROAD TRAIN THAT RAN TO CADIZ

An Interesting Chapter of Early Railroad History in Eastern Ohio.

As a part of its series of "old time" sketches, a most entertaining feature of the Cadiz Sentinel the past year or two, it has recently published several articles on the beginning of the Pan-handle railroad, or the Steubenville and Indiana, as it was then. The current issue of the Sentinel has the following that will be of interest to old residents who remember the occasion:

Trains began running between Steubenville and Unionport on Dec. 22, 1853, the service being two passengers and one freight each way every day except Sunday. After February 5, 1854, their trips were extended to Cadiz Junction.

The road was finished to Cadiz in June, 1854, and about the first of July (perhaps it was on the Fourth) Cadiz celebrated the event. All the passenger cars of the road were not sufficient for the excursionists. There was many flat cars pressed into the service, with boards placed across them for seats, and there was a big time in the town on the hills. Steubenville brought two fire engines and the companies to man them, and there was a parade. Many of the people of Cadiz had never seen a fire engine, and the sight was a curiosity. There were speeches galore, and the American eagle had his pinions sadly strained. There was a big dinner on the tables set in front of the old court house and public buildings, under the locust trees, free to all. It was perhaps the biggest day Cadiz ever saw if we except the day of the big meetings in 1840, when both parties had their meeting on the same day, and each sought to have the largest procession.

Michael Welsh, 22, and James Fox, 30, Wabash railroad laborers, were burned to death while sleeping in a box car at Dillonvale.

HANNA WILL NOT BE A CANDIDATE

Neither Will He Be Chairman of the Republican National Committee.

NO OHIO MAN IN THE RACE

For the Vice Presidential Nomination. Interesting Political Predictions By the Washington Correspondent of the Cleveland Leader.

Unless death intervenes Theodore Roosevelt will be nominated for president at the convention of the Republican party which will meet next June, says James B. Morrow, Washington correspondent of the Cleveland Leader. The nomination will be made by acclamation. Every delegate will vote for Roosevelt. No other man on the face of the earth will be thought of by the Republicans at that time.

The nomination having been made and made unanimously, Senator Hanna will leave the Republican national committee. He will not be Mr. Roosevelt's campaign manager. Two great battles—one in 1896 and the other in 1900—have drawn upon his strength and have put his life in jeopardy. He will fight no more, except in the ranks. In his sixty-seventh year and a sufferer from an obstinate, an incurable infirmity of the knee, he will hereafter give some thought to his own health, his own physical comfort and his own mental tranquility.

Although invited, informally and more than once, by the president to consent to act as the chairman of the national committee, Mr. Hanna as yet has made no public announcement of what he proposes to do. That announcement will come at the proper time.

Furthermore, Ohio will have no candidate for vice president. The free and happy talk about Colonel Herrick will be heard no more except among irresponsible persons.

These things I write down as being certainties. As to what is likely to happen in respect to the chairmanship of the national committee, it can be said that Winthrop Murray Crane, until a recent day governor of Massachusetts, will be chosen by the president to be his campaign manager. Mr. Crane is young and rich, his family having attained to opulence by the manufacture of paper.

Fifteen hundred letters and telegrams have been received by Mr. Hanna since a week ago last Tuesday in which promises were made to give him support for the presidency. He has been pleaded with and strenuously commanded to become a candidate. At every hand here in Washington he is pledged the active friendship and work of notable men. If Mr. Hanna were not pleased with the fine words which he hears from every part of the country he would not have the earthly qualities of a human being. And Mr. Hanna is no angel, no celestial spirit. Neither is Mr. Hanna weak in prophecy. He can see as far as anyone in politics and in business.

If Mr. Hanna should be persuaded to leave the way of prudence and to listen to the voice of zeal, what would happen? A terrific battle within the Republican party and the defeat of the Republican candidate for president. With Democrats it may be called artful politics to work up sentiment for Mr. Hanna. Democrats with craft are doing that now. Persons, especially editor men, who drew Hanna as a beast and ruffian, are over kind to him at present. But they will have spread their ink and their guile for nothing. Roosevelt is the man—the man here and the man who is coming.

The Nature of These Ailments and Symptoms By Which They May Be Detected.

Dr. Grimes, the writer of the article which appears below, has studied in three leading schools of medicine. He is a graduate of the old school and an under-graduate of the eclectic school and has had great success in a practice of over 20 years, not having lost a case of typhoid fever for over five years, though he has treated quite a number. He has also had quite an experience with smallpox, and other contagious diseases, with equally good results.

The probabilities are, from the general conditions of the country, that as cold weather advances this vicinity as well as many others, will have more or less smallpox to contend with. And as scarlet fever and measles germs are always lurking around looking for some fertile soil in which to show themselves, a few remarks to the public as regards the most prominent symptoms of the three diseases, as well as the symptoms which serve to differentiate or distinguish them in their forming stage would be appropriate.

HANNA WILL NOT BE A CANDIDATE

Neither Will He Be Chairman of the Republican National Committee.

NO OHIO MAN IN THE RACE

For the Vice Presidential Nomination. Interesting Political Predictions By the Washington Correspondent of the Cleveland Leader.

Unless death intervenes Theodore Roosevelt will be nominated for president at the convention of the Republican party which will meet next June, says James B. Morrow, Washington correspondent of the Cleveland Leader. The nomination will be made by acclamation. Every delegate will vote for Roosevelt. No other man on the face of the earth will be thought of by the Republicans at that time.

The nomination having been made and made unanimously, Senator Hanna will leave the Republican national committee. He will not be Mr. Roosevelt's campaign manager. Two great battles—one in 1896 and the other in 1900—have drawn upon his strength and have put his life in jeopardy. He will fight no more, except in the ranks. In his sixty-seventh year and a sufferer from an obstinate, incurable infirmity of the knee, he will hereafter give some thought to his own health, his own physical comfort and his own mental tranquility.

Although invited, informally and more than once, by the president to consent to act as the chairman of the national committee, Mr. Hanna as yet has made no public announcement of what he proposes to do. That announcement will come at the proper time.

Furthermore, Ohio will have no candidate for vice president. The free and happy talk about Colonel Herrick will be heard no more except among irresponsible persons.

These things I write down as being certainties. As to what is likely to happen in respect to the chairmanship of the national committee, it can be said that Winthrop Murray Crane, until a recent day governor of Massachusetts, will be chosen by the president to be his campaign manager. Mr. Crane is young and rich, his family having attained to opulence by the manufacture of paper.

Fifteen hundred letters and telegrams have been received by Mr. Hanna since a week ago last Tuesday in which promises were made to give him support for the presidency. He has been pleaded with and strenuously commanded to become a candidate. At every hand here in Washington he is pledged the active friendship and work of notable men. If Mr. Hanna were not pleased with the fine words which he hears from every part of the country he would not have the earthly qualities of a human being. And Mr. Hanna is no angel, no celestial spirit. Neither is Mr. Hanna weak in prophecy. He can see as far as anyone in politics and in business.

If Mr. Hanna should be persuaded to leave the way of prudence and to listen to the voice of zeal, what would happen? A terrific battle within the Republican party and the defeat of the Republican candidate for president. With Democrats it may be called artful politics to work up sentiment for Mr. Hanna. Democrats with craft are doing that now. Persons, especially editor men, who drew Hanna as a beast and ruffian, are over kind to him at present. But they will have spread their ink and their guile for nothing. Roosevelt is the man—the man here and the man who is coming.

20TH YEAR. NO. 267.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1903.

TWO CENTS.

ABOUT INFECTIOUS DISEASES

The Nature of These Ailments and Symptoms By Which They May Be Detected.

Dr. Grimes, the writer of the article which appears below, has studied in three leading schools of medicine. He is a graduate of the old school and an under-graduate of the eclectic school and has had great success in a practice of over 20 years, not having lost a case of typhoid fever for over five years, though he has treated quite a number. He has also had quite an experience with smallpox, and other contagious diseases, with equally good results.

The probabilities are, from the general conditions of the country, that as cold weather advances this vicinity as well as many others, will have more or less smallpox to contend with. And as scarlet fever and measles germs are always lurking around looking for some fertile soil in which to show themselves, a few remarks to the public as regards the most prominent symptoms of the three diseases, as well as the symptoms which serve to differentiate or distinguish them in their forming stage would be appropriate.

Four varieties of smallpox are recognized: The discrete, of moderate severity; the confluent, of great severity; the hemorrhagic or malignant, and varioloid, or smallpox as modified by vaccination.

The initial symptoms of smallpox after an incubation period ranging from eight to fifteen days, usually begins with a chill in adults and a convulsion very often in children; followed by intense headache, excessive pain in the small of the back, nausea and vomiting.

The temperature rises rapidly the first 48 hours, the face is flushed, eyes bright, with generally more or less delirium. The initial fever continues high until the third or fourth day, when a decided remission occurs, lasting until the seventh or eighth day, when it again rises. This is called the fever of suppuration, fluctuating more or less, and in favorable cases it falls to the normal about the eighteenth day of the disease.

The characteristic eruptions appear on the third or fourth day of the disease, as small, red spots, first on the forehead and wrists, gradually extending to other parts of the body. The rash is at first macular, rapidly changing to rounded papules, feeling like shot under the skin.

About the fifth or sixth day these change to vesicles and about the eighth day they are converted into pustules, each one surrounded by a red areola, and the intervening skin swollen. At this time the fever again rises and the general symptoms reappear. About the twelfth day scabs or crusts begin to form, and in uncomplicated cases all the symptoms begin to abate.

In the confluent form all the symptoms are more intense; the pustules coalesce, covering the surface as one solid crust. In the hemorrhagic form, sometimes called black smallpox, all the symptoms are similar to the confluent form until the stage of pustulation, when the pock becomes filled with blood, with hemorrhage from the mucous membranes of the lungs, stomach, bowels, or kidneys, and death generally closes the scene by the ninth day.

Scarlet fever is essentially a disease of childhood, and few persons will take it after the age of 20. Scarlet fever has been divided into three forms—simple, anginous and malignant, differing in their intensity, severity of symptoms and fatality. Usually six to eight days elapse after exposure, before the disease makes its appearance, and is usually ushered in with a chill, followed with high fever, nausea and vomiting, pain in the head, and back, sore throat and difficulty in swallowing. All the tissues of the throat are inflamed and swollen; the tongue is covered with little red papilla resembling a strawberry. This is called the strawberry tongue of scarlet fever and is one of the diagnostic signs of the disease.

At the end of the first or beginning of the second day, the rash appears first on the neck and chest, whence it spreads over the whole body, usually within the next 24 hours. From a distance the skin looks uniformly and brilliantly scarlet, but on close inspection the rash is seen to consist of fine closely set red points, the intervening skin being diffusely red. The rash persists from two to four days, and slowly disappears. In favorable cases the fever gradually falls as the rash disappears, so that by the eighth day it reaches the normal.

These are the general symptoms of the disease in the simple form. In the other two varieties all the symptoms are increased in severity, and may be to such an extent in the malignant form as to cause death in from 24 to 36 hours, even before the rash has had time to appear.

Measles is an acute, highly contagious disease and in from seven to fourteen days after exposure the disease is ushered in with chilliness, sneezing, watery eyes, drowsiness and cough. Headache and vomiting may be present. The eruption appears on the fourth day, first upon the face as small red flattened papules, which grow larger and invades the trunk and extremities. The countenance has a mottled, swollen appearance, which with the reddened eyes, and general catarrhal condition, affords a very characteristic facies. The rash can be seen upon the mucous surfaces of the mouth and throat, very often before it is visible on the surface. The single point of eruption much resembles a mosquito bite. The points of eruption generally coalesce, so as to present larger patches of blotches.

It requires from two to three days for the full appearance of the eruption. During the time the eruption is coming upon the surface, the fever is higher than before. The general symptoms do not lessen until the sixth or seventh day, when the rash begins to fade, and the catarrhal symptoms slowly disappear.

These are the symptoms of an ordinary case of measles. In the hemorrhagic form, or as it is sometimes called the black measles, all the symptoms are increased in severity with hemorrhages from various organs as in hemorrhagic smallpox.

A Tract of 529 Acres Purchased By Lewis McLain for $13,000.

Will Reed's New Way of Selling Mi-o-na, the Flesh-Forming Food.

There are not very many things in Will Reed's large stock of medicines that he is willing to have you take out of his store and say if it does not give you satisfaction you need not pay for it.

In reality it is in this way that he is selling Mi-o-na, the flesh-forming food and digestion regulator, as you will see by reading the following bond:

GUARANTEE BOND.
I hereby agree to refund the price paid for Mi-o-na if the purchaser tells me that it has not increased flesh and given freedom from stomach troubles.

WILL REED.
The signed bond gives you his receipt for the money and his agreement to refund it if you find that Mi-o-na does not give an increase in weight and absolute freedom from stomach troubles.

Look into the faces of men and women of East Liverpool and see how large a proportion have grown thin and haggard before their time. What these people need is Mi-o-na, the flesh-forming food, a restorer of health and strength to the digestive organs.

The guarantee bond that Will Reed gives you with Mi-o-na, speaks volumes for the merit of Mi-o-na. No one can afford to suffer longer, or be thin and weak, now that there is a chance like this to get a remedy that costs nothing unless it restores health and strength.

county reported for many months. The price was $13,000 and was paid in cash at the National Exchange bank in Steubenville. William Leas, of Annapolis, was the seller of the tract which is known as the Thomas Taylor farm, and the negotiations were consummated direct between buyer and seller without any middlemen.

The property beside being average good farming land, is underlaid with several veins of coal, and has at least 2,000,000 feet of fine timber on it. The land is situated on the Town Fork of Yellow Creek, adjacent to the surveyed coal roads between the Ohio river and Bergholz, and is less than six miles from the C. & P. railroad at Hammondsville.

Mr. McLain will sell the timber and hold the coal and surface for future developments, and there is little doubt that he will make a handsome bunch of money out of the investment, as he is one of the most successful farmers and business men of the county.

FIRST RAILROAD TRAIN THAT RAN TO CADIZ

An Interesting Chapter of Early Railroad History in Eastern Ohio.

As a part of its series of "old time" sketches, a most entertaining feature of the Cadiz Sentinel the past year or two, it has recently published several articles on the beginning of the Pan-handle railroad, or the Steubenville and Indiana, as it was then. The current issue of the Sentinel has the following that will be of interest to old residents who remember the occasion:

Trains began running between Steubenville and Unionport on Dec. 23, 1853, the service being two passengers and one freight each way every day except Sunday. After February 5, 1854, their trips were extended to Cadiz Junction.

The road was finished to Cadiz in June, 1854, and about the first of July (perhaps it was on the Fourth) Cadiz celebrated the event. All the passenger cars of the road were not sufficient for the excursionists. There was many flat cars pressed into the service, with boards placed across them for seats, and there was a big time in the town on the hills. Steubenville brought two fire engines and the companies to man them, and there was a parade. Many of the people of Cadiz had never seen a fire engine, and the sight was a curiosity. There were speeches galore, and the American eagle had his pinions sadly strained. There was a big dinner on the tables set in front of the old court house and public buildings, under the locust trees, free to all. It was perhaps the biggest day Cadiz ever saw if we except the day of the big meetings in 1840, when both parties had their meeting on the same day, and each sought to have the largest procession.

Michael Welsh, 22, and James Fox, 30, Wabash railroad laborers, were burned to death while sleeping in a box car at Dillonvale.

Household Cares

A Sick Woman's Devotion to Duty is a Heroism which a Well Person Cannot Understand.

How distressing to see a woman struggling with her daily round of household duties, when her back and head are aching, and every new movement brings out a new pain!

One day the poor woman is wretched and utterly miserable; in a day or two she is better and laughs at her fears, thinking there is nothing much the matter after all; but before night the deadly backache reappears, the limbs tremble, the lips twitch—it seems as though all the imps of Satan were clutching her vitals; she "goes to pieces" and is flat on her back.

No woman ought to arrive at this terrible state of misery, because these symptoms are a sure forerunner of womb troubles. She must remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is almost an infallible cure for all female ills, such as irregularity of periods, which cause weak stomach, sick headache, etc., displacements and inflammation of the womb, or any of the multitudes of illnesses which beset the female organism. Read how Mrs. Frake wrote to Mrs. Pinkham when she was in great trouble. Her letter tells the result, and how a cure was effected by the use of

"I have read of your medicine making so many cures and have been advised to write to you, but I feel that it is of no use. The doctor says that I have womb trouble, but he does not seem to help me a great deal. I have such a weakness across me most of the time—have backache, am very nervous, and am troubled with leucorrhoea. I am very weak, cannot walk any distance or stand long unless I ache all over. I would like to know if you think your medicine would do me any good."—Mrs. SAMUEL FRAKE, Prospect Plains, N.J.

"I cannot thank you enough for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. When I first wrote to you I had suffered for years. The doctor said I had congestion of the womb, was troubled with my kidneys and bladder, my back ached dreadfully all the time, and I suffered with bearing-down feeling, could scarcely walk about to do my own housework. I stopped doctoring with the physician and took your medicine, and am now able to do my own work, have no more backache or weakness across me, and can do all my own work. I cannot praise your medicine enough, and would advise all suffering women to try it."—Mrs. SAMUEL FRAKE, Prospect Plains, N.J.

$5000 FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.

SECESSION A SUCCESS

New Government in Panama
Carries on State Business
Without a Hitch.

UNITED STATES AS GODMOTHER

Little Appears to Indicate Change of Sovereignty—Civil Employees Continue in Office After Taking Oath of Allegiance to New Republic.

Colon, Nov. 13.—What most impresses all observers of the present situation on the isthmus of Panama is the complete success of the secession movement and the orderly continuance of affairs since the change of government. All governmental functions have so far been carried on with complete success, and the unanimous feeling throughout the district of Panama in favor of the new government is far beyond what its promoters anticipated when making their preparations for the memorable event of Nov. 3.

The successful execution of all the details of the secession plan show that the work was that of minds masterful in such matters and rarely known in South American revolutions. The municipal and provincial laws and regulations which existed under the government of Colombia have been continued without any practical change. With three or four exceptions all the civil employees of Colon and its neighborhood have taken the oath of allegiance to the new republic and been continued in office, those who refused to take the oath being sent to Savannah.

Uniforms and Flag Only Difference.
But for the new uniforms of the volunteer soldiers of the young republic

seen on the streets of Colon and the one Panamanian flag flying over the town hall there appears nothing in the daily life of this place to indicate a change of sovereignty.

Porfirio Melendez, the new civil and military governor of Colon, expressed his full realization of what Panama owed to the United States, calling that country "the new republic's powerful and generous godmother." General Melendez said:

"Panama will be able to raise between 5,000 and 6,000 troops partly armed, in case the necessity arises to resist a Colombian attack, but I do not believe that any such necessity will ever arise."

Regarding the mission of General Reyes, Governor Melendez said:

General Reyes' Mission Useless.

"A telegram has been received by the government of Panama that General Reyes is coming to the isthmus in the hope of saving Colombia's honor and is ready on behalf of the Colombian government to promise Panama all concessions and considerations. The Panama government, however, has answered that unless General Reyes comes ready to recognize the new republic and accredit to it as the Colombian envoy he will not be received."

Governor Melendez further said that he would arrest General Reyes on his arrival here unless he immediately accepted Panama's stipulations. The general is due to arrive at Barranquilla at the end of this week, but Governor Melendez thinks he will not proceed to the isthmus. The governor said it was impossible for Colombia to send troops overland to the isthmus because of the physical conditions of the country.

It is apparent that United States warships will not permit any movement by sea or armed forces. Governor Melendez tried to send 25 armed men to Porto Bello, but they were stopped by the United States gunboat Nashville and compelled to return. A schooner loaded with Panamanian troops was sent to Bocas del Toro, but they were unarmed.

Troops Cannot Land at Colon.

No news has yet been received of any attempt on the part of Colombia to move troops to the isthmus. Should such an attempt be made by sea the United States naval commanders would inform the commanders of the transports that the troops would not be permitted to land at Colon. The warships are examining all vessels arriving at Colon from Colombian ports and scrutinizing the passengers with the object of discouraging the landing of objectionable persons. It is believed that the sending of troops by Colombia is the only thing that can possibly disturb the tranquil march of events on the isthmus.

The United States naval authorities on the Colon side of the isthmus have not yet received any official communication saying that the United States has recognized the provisional Panamanian government. Consequently they cannot treat in any way officially with the Panamanian representatives.

The American warships have not yet saluted the flag of the new republic.

Jamaica and the Cotton Industry.

Kingston, Jamaica, Nov. 13.—Sir Daniel Morris, the imperial agricultural commissioner to the West Indies, addressed a large gathering of planters here. Reporting on his recent tour of the American cotton states, Sir Daniel said that many of the districts of the island of Jamaica were suitable for the cultivation of cotton and strongly urged the importance of establishing the industry on an extensive scale. It is believed that many planters will follow his advice. There is a general movement in the British West Indies looking to the supplying of cotton to the British manufacturers, so as to make them less dependent upon foreign sources.

PRESIDENT HOLDS CONFERENCE.

Talked About "A Little of Everything,"
According to Senator Hanna.

Washington, Nov. 13.—President Roosevelt held a conference with leading members of the Republican party, who dined with him at the White House. Those who were present were Secretaries Hay and Wilson and Senators Hale, Hanna, Fairbanks, Platt, of Connecticut, and Allison.

Various questions were discussed and Senator Hanna, when he left the White House, on being asked what had been talked about, replied: "Oh, a little of everything."

The presence, however, of Secretary Hay and Senators Hanna and Spooner leads to the impression that the isthmus situation received more attention than any other matter. It is understood also that some of the features of the president's forthcoming message were alluded to.

Murdered on Freight Train.

Minneapolis, Nov. 13.—Colton G. Gordon, of Vail, Ia., was the man murdered early Wednesday morning by highwaymen on a Great Northern freight train near Maple Plain, about 12 miles west of here. Two of his companions were seriously injured. The men were first robbed and then compelled to jump from the train while it was going at the rate of 25 miles an hour. Frank Kelley, of Philadelphia, was brought to St. Mary's hospital here with a broken leg. He was able to give the authorities a good description of the highwaymen.

Peary Presented With Medal.

London, Nov. 13.—Commander Peary, the Arctic explorer, was presented with the Livingstone gold medal by the Royal Geographical society of Edinburgh and at the same time was made an honorary member of the society in recognition of his work in Arctic exploration. The Livingstone medal was founded by a daughter of the late Dr. Livingstone.

Chainmakers Elect Officers.

Columbus, Nov. 13.—The National Chainmakers' association met here and elected the following officers: President, Charles Wambaugh, Columbus; vice president, Robert J. McKay, Pittsburg. It is understood that a general increase of prices was decided upon, but President Wambaugh declined to discuss the matter.

A Good Name.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Texas. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effective. They cure biliousness, torpid liver, jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger (only).

HEROIC LIEUTENANT.

Torpedo Boat Destroyer Saved from Destruction by Brave Seamen.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 13.—The heroism of Lieutenant Roland I. Curtin and several seamen on board the torpedo boat destroyer Lawrence saved that craft from destruction. A lighted candle left by a workman on a wooden box in the vessel's forward compartment caused a fire which burned through the woodwork before it was extinguished by the lieutenant and some seamen just before the flames reached the magazine, in which a quantity of explosive was stored.

The fire occurred in a stuffy compartment directly adjoining the magazine and had gained considerable headway when it was discovered. The place was filled with a dense smoke that baffled the efforts of the crew and caused them to fall helpless to the steel floor. Time and again Lieutenant Curtin dived into the fire chamber and emerged with the unconscious form of a seaman in his grasp. After a hurried resuscitation the seaman and his officer would return to the fight, only to again succumb to the smoke.

Finally the flames were extinguished and then the lieutenant was missed. A sailor plunged into the compartment and a second later came out with the limp body of the officer in his arms. Five seamen in a similar condition were stretched out on the deck. All were hurried on board the Olympia in drydock and the surgeons soon brought them to consciousness. The damage to the Lawrence was trifling.

GOELET CHARGES FORGERY.

Says Abeel Impersonated Him and Proposed Marriage.

New York, Nov. 13.—Formal complaint charging forgery was made against James Abeel by Robert Goelet, the duchess of Roxburghe's brother, whom Abeel is said to have impersonated in proposing marriage to Miss Eleanor Anderson, telegraph operator at the Grand hotel in this city. Since the publicity given to the proposed wedding of the pretended Goelet and the denial of Mr. Goelet that he knew Miss Anderson, Abeel has disappeared. Mr. Goelet went to the district attorney's office and entered the complaint against Abeel, charging him with forging the name of J. B. Van Every, vice president of the Western Union, to a letter of introduction, by means of which Abeel became acquainted with Miss Anderson.

FOG CAUSES ACCIDENT.

Steamer Collides With Closed Draw of Railroad Bridge.

Toledo, Nov. 13.—The big steel steamer Luzon, while entering the harbor, collided with the closed draw of the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad bridge. The draw was badly buckled and knocked from its pins, so that the harbor is closed to navigation and the bridge closed to traffic. A considerable fleet of vessels will be delayed on account of the accident.

The money damage to the bridge will be in the neighborhood of $30,000. The Luzon is owned by E. D. Carter, of Erie, Pa., and is evidently not badly injured, as she immediately turned about and left the harbor. At the time of the accident there was fog on the river and the blame has not been located.

CONSTIPATION

"For over nine years I suffered with chronic constipation and during this time I had to take an injection of warm water once every 24 hours before I could have an action on my bowels. Happily I tried Cascarets, and today I am a well man. During the nine years before I used Cascarets I suffered untold misery with internal piles. Thanks to you I am free from all that this morning. You can use this in behalf of suffering humanity."

"I cannot thank you enough for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. When I first wrote to you I had suffered for years. The doctor said I had congestion of the womb, was troubled with my kidneys and bladder, my back ached dreadfully all the time, and I suffered with bearing-down feeling, could scarcely walk about to do my own household work. I stopped doctoring with the physician and took your medicine, and am now able to do my own work, have no more backache or weakness across me, and can do all my own work. I cannot praise your medicine enough, and would advise all suffering women to try it."—Mrs. SAMUEL FRAKE, Prospect Plains, N.J.

SECESSION A SUCCESS

New Government in Panama

Without a Hitch.

UNITED STATES AS GODMOTHER

Little Appears to Indicate Change of Sovereignty—Civil Employees Continue in Office After Taking Oath of Allegiance to New Republic.

Colon, Nov. 13.—What most impresses all observers of the present situation on the isthmus of Panama is the complete success of the secession movement and the orderly continuance of affairs since the change of government. All governmental functions have so far been carried on with complete success, and the unanimous feeling throughout the district of Panama in favor of the new government is far beyond what its promoters anticipated when making their preparations for the memorable event of Nov. 3.

The successful execution of all the details of the secession plan show that the work was that of minds masterful in such matters and rarely known in South American revolutions. The municipal and provincial laws and regulations which existed under the government of Colombia have been continued without any practical change. With three or four exceptions all the civil employees of Colon and its neighborhood have taken the oath of allegiance to the new republic and been continued in office, those who refused to take the oath being sent to Savannah.

Uniforms and Flag Only Difference.
But for the new uniforms of the volunteer soldiers of the young republic

seen on the streets of Colon and the one Panamanian flag flying over the town hall there appears nothing in the daily life of this place to indicate a change of sovereignty.

Porfirio Melendez, the new civil and military governor of Colon, expressed his full realization of what Panama owed to the United States, calling that country "the new republic's powerful and generous godmother." General Melendez said:

"Panama will be able to raise between 5,000 and 6,000 troops partly armed, in case the necessity arises to resist a Colombian attack, but I do not believe that any such necessity will ever arise."

Regarding the mission of General Reyes, Governor Melendez said:

"General Reyes' Mission Useless.
A telegram has been received by the government of Panama that General Reyes is coming to the isthmus in the hope of saving Colombia's honor and is ready on behalf of the Colombian government to promise Panama all concessions and considerations. The Panama government, however, has answered that unless General Reyes comes ready to recognize the new republic and accredit to it as the Colombian envoy he will not be received."

Governor Melendez further said that he would arrest General Reyes on his arrival here unless he immediately accepted Panama's stipulations. The general is due to arrive at Barranquilla at the end of this week, but Governor Melendez thinks he will not proceed to the isthmus. The governor said it was impossible for Colombia to send troops overland to the isthmus because of the physical conditions of the country.

It is apparent that United States warships will not permit any movement by sea or armed forces. Governor Melendez tried to send 25 armed men to Porto Bello, but they were stopped by the United States gunboat Nashville and compelled to return. A schooner loaded with Panamanian troops was sent to Bocas del Toro, but they went unarmed.

Troops Cannot Land at Colon.

No news has yet been received of any attempt on the part of Colombia to move troops to the isthmus. Should such an attempt be made by sea the United States naval commanders would inform the commanders of the transports that the troops would not be permitted to land at Colon. The warships are examining all vessels arriving at Colon from Colombian ports and scrutinizing the passengers with the object of discouraging the landing of objectionable persons. It is believed that the sending of troops by Colombia is the only thing that can possibly disturb the tranquil march of events on the isthmus.

The United States naval authorities on the Colon side of the isthmus have not yet received any official communication saying that the United States has recognized the provisional Panamanian government. Consequently they cannot treat in any way officially with the Panamanian representatives.

The American warships have not yet saluted the flag of the new republic.

Jamaica and the Cotton Industry.
Kingston, Jamaica, Nov. 13.—Sir Daniel Morris, the imperial agricultural commissioner to the West Indies, addressed a large gathering of planters here. Reporting on his recent tour of the American cotton states, Sir Daniel said that many of the districts of the island of Jamaica were suitable for the cultivation of cotton and strongly urged the importance of establishing the industry on an extensive scale. It is believed that many planters will follow his advice. There is a general movement in the British West Indies looking to the supplying of cotton to the British manufacturers, so as to make them less dependent upon foreign sources.

PRESIDENT HOLDS CONFERENCE.

Talked About "A Little of Everything," According to Senator Hanna.

Washington, Nov. 13.—President Roosevelt held a conference with leading members of the Republican party, who dined with him at the White House. Those who were present were Secretaries Hay and Wilson and Senators Hale, Hanna, Fairbanks, Platt, of Connecticut, and Allison.

Various questions were discussed and Senator Hanna, when he left the White House, on being asked what had been talked about, replied: "Oh, a little of everything."

The presence, however, of Secretary Hay and Senators Hanna and Spooner leads to the impression that the isthmus situation received more attention than any other matter. It is understood also that some of the features of the president's forthcoming message were alluded to.

Murdered on Freight Train.
Minneapolis, Nov. 13.—Colton G. Gordon, of Valle, Ia., was the man murdered early Wednesday morning by highwaymen on a Great Northern freight train near Maple Plain, about 12 miles west of here. Two of his companions were seriously injured. The men were first robbed and then compelled to jump from the train while it was going at the rate of 25 miles an hour. Frank Kelley, of Philadelphia, was brought to St. Mary's hospital here with a broken leg. He was able to give the authorities a good description of the highwaymen.

Pearly Presented With Medal.
London, Nov. 13.—Commander Pearly, the Arctic explorer, was presented with the Livingstone gold medal by the Royal Geographical society of Edinburgh and at the same time was made an honorary member of the society in recognition of his work in Arctic exploration. The Livingstone medal was founded by a daughter of the late Dr. Livingstone.

Chainmakers Elect Officers.
Columbus, Nov. 13.—The National Chainmakers' association met here and elected the following officers: President, Charles Wambaugh, Columbus; vice president, Robert J. McKay, Pittsburgh. It is understood that a general increase of prices was decided upon, but President Wambaugh declined to discuss the matter.

A Good Name.
From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Texas. Thousands of people are using these little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver, jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge and weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by Alvin H. Bulger (only).

HEROIC LIEUTENANT.

Torpedo Boat Destroyer Saved from Destruction by Brave Seamen.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 13.—The heroism of Lieutenant Roland I. Curtin and several seamen on board the torpedo boat destroyer Lawrence saved that craft from destruction. A lighted candle left by a workman on a wooden box in the vessel's forward compartment caused a fire which burned much of the woodwork before it was extinguished by the lieutenant and some seamen just before the flames reached the magazine, in which a quantity of explosive was stored.

The fire occurred in a stuffy compartment directly adjoining the magazine and had gained considerable headway when it was discovered. This place was filled with a dense smoke that baffled the efforts of the crew and caused them to fall helpless to the steel floor. Time and again Lieutenant Curtin dove into the fire chamber and emerged with the unconscious form of a seaman in his grasp. After a hurried resuscitation the seaman and his officer would return to the fight, only to again succumb to the smoke.

Finally the flames were extinguished and then the lieutenant was missed. A sailor plunged into the compartment and a second later came out with the limp body of the officer in his arms. Five seamen in a similar condition were stretched out on the deck. All were hurried on board the Olympia in drydock and the surgeons soon brought them to consciousness. The damage to the Lawrence was trifling.

GOELET CHARGES FORGERY.

Says Abeel Impersonated Him and Proposed Marriage.

New York, Nov. 13.—Formal complaint charging forgery was made against James Abeel by Robert Goelet, the duchess of Roxburghe's brother, whom Abeel is said to have impersonated in proposing marriage to Miss Eleanor Anderson, telegraph operator at the Grand hotel in this city. Since the publicity given to the proposed wedding of the pretended Goelet and the denial of Mr. Goelet that he knew Miss Anderson, Abeel has disappeared.

Mr. Goelet went to the district attorney's office and entered the complaint against Abeel, charging him with forging the name of J. B. Van Every, vice president of the Western Union, to a letter of introduction, by means of which Abeel became acquainted with Miss Anderson.

FOG CAUSES ACCIDENT.

Steamer Collides With Closed Draw of Railroad Bridge.

Toledo, Nov. 13.—The big steel steamer Luzon, while entering the harbor, collided with the closed draw of the Wheeling and Lake Erie railroad bridge. The draw was badly buckled and knocked from its pins, so that the harbor is closed to navigation and the bridge closed to traffic. A considerable fleet of vessels will be delayed on account of the accident.

The money damage to the bridge will be in the neighborhood of $30,000. The Luzon is owned by E. D. Carter, of Erie, Pa., and is evidently not badly injured, as she immediately turned about and left the harbor. At the time of the accident there was fog on the river and the blame has not been located.

STRIKE CAUSES RIOTS

Non-Union Street Car Crews
Attacked by Sympathizers
of Old Employees.

TRAFFIC IS COMPLETELY TIED UP

Blood Shed and One Man Has Back
Broken—Number of Cars Wrecked.
Mayor Preserves Impartial Attitude.
Three Thousand Men Out.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Although the full list of the injured in the street car strike rioting is undoubtedly large, the police secured the names only of those whose wounds were of a serious nature. The most serious cases probably are those of H. S. Orton, the conductor who was beaten while trying to run a Cottage Grove avenue cable train, and his gripman, William Watson. Besides being hit with missiles these men were dragged from their train by the rioters and beaten. Orton may not live. Albert Barren, a non-union motorman on the Wentworth avenue line, was taken to his home unconscious from being hit on the head with a brick, but he will recover. Two men at the Seventy-seventh street barns had their heads cut and were badly bruised by missiles thrown by rioters. About 15 arrests have been made for rioting.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Constant scenes of disorder over a district approximately 50 square miles in extent resulted from the inauguration of a strike by the employees of one of the two principal surface street railway companies in Chicago. All along the lines, wherever cars were started, strike sympathizers made desperate onslaughts on the crews. The tieup was made complete.

A number of cars were wrecked and that no person was killed is no fault of the rioters. One man had his back broken and the first shot of the strike was fired at Wentworth avenue and West Sixty-ninth street, where a mob of several hundred persons tried to hold up a train.

Many Persons Injured.
Many persons, chiefly non-union street car men, were injured by flying stones or splintered glass. Two women were among those hurt.

Excepting a few dozen passengers who had to flee from the cars, the 300,000 daily patrons of the company were forced to all sorts of other methods in order to get down town and back.

With faces and hands bleeding from the attacks of the strikers motormen, gripmen and conductors who tried to run trains returned to the barns and refused to go out again unless the trains bore platoons of police or patrol wagons were alongside.

The police confined their efforts to seeing that the passage of cars from the barns was unobstructed and that crowds and blockades in the streets were quickly cleared. This was done under orders from Mayor Carter H. Harrison, whose announced purpose was to preserve an impartial attitude, taking sides neither for nor against the strikers or the street car company which, though known as the Chicago City railway, is a private corporation, the lines of which extend through the south side of the city radiating from the business center.

New Chief of Police Has Charge.

Developments regarding the attitude of the municipal administration hinge largely upon a new official, Herman F. Schuetler, who, under appointment from the mayor, assumed the duties of assistant chief of police. Schuetler will be in direct charge of police arrangements during the contest. Schuetler is the man who tracked and arrested Anarchist Louis Lingg after the Haymarket riot and subsequently sent Adolph Luetgert, the wealthy sausage manufacturer, to die in the penitentiary under conviction for wife murder. Schuetler is an athlete, six feet four inches tall, and has a remarkable record for personal daring and astuteness.

As a result of the tieup of the surface lines the elevated and steam roads traversing the strike-bound district were taxed to their utmost capacity. Train service on all lines were doubled and every effort made to accommodate the thousands of additional passengers. Meanwhile bus lines, hacks and express wagons with improvised seats did a thriving business in transporting people to and from their places of business.

WHY MOTHERS WORRY

Did you ever hear a mother worry over a plump child? There is no better bank of health for a child to draw from than a good supply of healthy flesh.

Scott's Emulsion not only gives a child weight and plumpness, but it feeds the brain, bones and nerves with strength and active power.

Fewer mothers would worry if they knew more about Scott's Emulsion.

SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York.

ness in transporting people to and from their places of business.

Cause of the Strike.
The strike is the outgrowth of persistent efforts for increased wages and exclusion of non-union employees. About 3,000 men, practically the entire force of the company's wage earners, are idle, the number of men at any time running cars being but a small fraction of the number usually at work. The company's stationary firemen, who have also presented demands for increased wages and to whom the trainmen looked for assistance, declined to go out, expressing their belief, after a conference with General Manager McCulloch, of the railway company, that he had not refused arbitration.

AERIAL NAVIGATION.
Dirigible Balloon Covers Distance of Forty-Four Miles.

Paris, Nov. 13.—The Lebaudy brothers, Paul and Pierre, French aeronauts, sailed their dirigible balloon from Moisson to Paris, a distance of 44 miles. They made the distance in and the remarkable time of one hour and 40 minutes. The balloon landed in the champs De Mars, in the heart of Paris.

This is the longest trip ever made by a French dirigible balloon and marks a distinct step in advance in aerial navigation.

POSTOFFICES ROBBED.

Burglars Blow Safe and Made Good Haul.

Lima, O., Nov. 13.—Robbers blew the postoffice safe in the village of Lafayette, nine miles east of here. They secured $200 in stamps and $300 in money. The explosion wrecked the safe and aroused the villagers, but the robbers, three in number, made their escape.

Madison, O., Nov. 13.—Burglars broke into the safe in the postoffice and secured money and stamps to the amount of $100. They escaped in a stolen rig.

Biggest Engine in World.
Lima, O., Nov. 13.—The Lima locomotive and machine works has just completed what is believed to be the largest locomotive in the world. The engine was built for the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad and will be used on the Kenneys creek branch in West Virginia. The engine is a Shay and is over three times the dimensions of any other ever built here. The usual size of such makes are from 30 to 65 tons. This is 150 tons, has 16 drive wheels 40 inches in diameter, with a 17-inch stroke; a 62-inch wagon top boiler and an 8,000-gallon water tank. It is fitted with Westinghouse airbrakes and all modern appliances, in all 300,000 pounds on the drivers.

Coal Strike in Colorado.
Denver, Nov. 13.—The coal strike situation in Colorado is practically unchanged. Rumors of a conference between operators and union leaders which it is predicted would result in an adjustment of their differences have been in circulation, but they lack confirmation. Assurances are given by the large coal companies that there would be no coal famine in this city or elsewhere in the state. It is proposed to bring coal from the east if necessary. The management of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company has instructed all its dealers to sell the product of its mines at the same prices as before the strike was called.

Preparing for Bowling Tournament.
Cleveland, Nov. 13.—Arrangements were made by the Cleveland Tournament association for the purchase of 10 of the latest make continuous alleys to be used at the national bowling tournament which will be held in Central armory Feb. 8 to 13. The armory will be fitted up to make one of the finest alleys ever built. So many inquiries have been received from all sections of the country that the local committee believe that the attendance of crack bowlers will be the largest in the history of professional bowling. The armory will be arranged so that a seating capacity of 5,000 spectators will be made.

Stabbed the Leading Man.
Wheeling, Nov. 13.—Michael McNeil, leading member of the "Miss Bob White" opera company, was seriously stabbed in the face by Timothy Hickey in a Benwood saloon. The company was on its way from Bellaire and while waiting to get a train at Benwood, McNeil and others entered the saloon. An argument was started by Hickey and he pulled a knife and slashed McNeil under the eye. Hickey fled to Bellaire, but was brought back and is now in jail.

Strikers Rioting at South Webster.
Portsmouth, O., Nov. 13.—A serious riot is expected at South Webster, where strikers bombarded the brick plant of the Harbison-Walker company's brick plant, and then, it is alleged, fired upon a stockade where non-union men are housed. The sheriff sent deputies to the scene of the trouble. The situation is grave and as there are no authorities here to enforce the law the company has taken up the matter of dismantling the plant.

QUALITY NOT QUANTITY.

Dr. Andrews Wants Roosevelt to Amend Pica for Swelling Census.

New York, Nov. 13.—At the business session of the delegates to the Delta Upsilon fraternity convention applications for charters were received from Ohio State university and the universities of Illinois, Colorado and Texas.

Dr. E. Benjamin Andrews, chancellor of the university of Nebraska and former president of Brown university, delivered the oration. Dr. Andrews deprecated the lack of appreciation in the United States of the higher intellectual attainments and said:

"Mark the cold greed and rapacity with which business is carried on. Mercantile honor is not unknown, but it is relatively rare than heretofore. Promoting ideals, stock manipulations, market rigging, in intent and in effect every whit as bad as highway robbery, occur daily, evoking no protest save the bleating of the shorn lambs. 'There is no fear that our population will be too small, but much that it is losing virility. I hope President Roosevelt will take early occasion to amend his pica for swelling the census by urging quality of population as more of a desideratum.

"I do not regard imperialism in itself as savagery, but the imperialism which views inferior races as our legitimate prey certainly is so."

CUBAN BILL INTRODUCED.

Speaker Appoints Ways and Means Committee of the House.

Washington, Nov. 13.—The speaker announced the ways and means committee as follows:

Republicans—Messrs. Payne (N. Y.),

Dewey Visits Annapolis.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 13.—Admiral George Dewey, accompanied by Mrs. Dewey and Commander Nathan Sergeant, U. S. N., arrived here on the United States steamer Dolphin. At the parade grounds the admiral was met by Superintendent Brownson and Commandant Badger and the officers and professors attached to the naval academy. The midshipmen, 630 strong, were paraded as a brigade of infantry

Dalzell (Pa.), Grosvenor (O.), Tawney (Minn.), McCall (Mass.), Babcock (Wis.), Metcalf (Cal.), Hill (Conn.), Boutell (Ill.), Watson (Ind.), Curtis (Kan.).

Democrats—Messrs. Williams (Miss.), Robertson (La.), Swanson (Va.), McClellan (N. Y.), Cooper (Tex.), Clark (Mo.).

Mr. Payne introduced the bill to make effective the Cuban reciprocity convention, which, without objection, was read by title and referred to the committee on ways and means.

Chairman Payne will call the committee together to consider the Cuban bill.

Editor's Daughter Marries Marquis.

Florence, Nov. 13.—Marquis Carlo Di Rudini, son of the former Italian premier, and Miss Dora Labouchere, daughter of Henry Labouchere, proprietor and editor of London Truth were married here. Mr. Labouchere and the former premier were present.

and marched off the field after being inspected by the admiral. A reception was held at the superintendent's residence, which was attended by the officers and heads of departments and their families.

Postal Receipts Increasing.

Washington, Nov. 13.—The statement of the gross postal receipts at 50 of the largest postoffices for October, 1903, as compared with October, 1902, shows aggregate receipts of $5,960,319, a net increase of almost 7 per cent. New York's receipts show an increase of 10 per cent and Chicago 7 per cent. The largest percentage of increase was 23 per cent at Atlanta, with 18 per cent at Indianapolis. The decreases were: Philadelphia, Jersey City, Peoria, Ill., St. Paul and Newark, N. J.

STRIKE CAUSES RIOTS

Non-Union Street Car Crews
Attacked by Sympathizers
of Old Employees.

TRAFFIC IS COMPLETELY TIED UP

Blood Shed and One Man Has Back
Broken—Number of Cars Wrecked.
Mayor Preserves Impartial Attitude.
Three Thousand Men Out.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Although the full list of the injured in the street car strike rioting is undoubtedly large, the police secured the names only of those whose wounds were of a serious nature. The most serious cases probably are those of H. S. Orton, the conductor who was beaten while trying to run a Cottage Grove avenue cable train, and his gripman, William Watson. Besides being hit with missiles these men were dragged from their train by the rioters and beaten. Orton may not live. Albert Barren, a non-union motorman on the Westworth avenue line, was taken to his home unconscious from being hit on the head with a brick, but he will recover. Two men at the Seventy-seventh street barns had their heads cut and were badly bruised by missiles thrown by rioters. About 15 arrests have been made for rioting.

Chicago, Nov. 13.—Constant scenes of disorder over a district approximately 50 square miles in extent resulted from the inauguration of a strike by the employees of one of the two principal surface street railway companies in Chicago. All along the lines, wherever cars were started, strike sympathizers made desperate onslaughts on the crews. The tieup was made complete.

A number of cars were wrecked and that no person was killed is no fault of the rioters. One man had his back broken and the first shot of the strike was fired at Westworth avenue and West Sixty-ninth street, where a mob of several hundred persons tried to hold up a train.

Many Persons Injured.
Many persons, chiefly non-union street car men, were injured by flying stones or splintered glass. Two women were among those hurt.

Excepting a few dozen passengers who had to flee from the cars, the 300,000 daily patrons of the company were forced to all sorts of other methods in order to get down town and back.

With faces and hands bleeding from the attacks of the strikers motormen, gripmen and conductors who tried to run trains returned to the barns and refused to go out again unless the trains bore platoons of police or patrol wagons were alongside.

The police confined their efforts to seeing that the passage of cars from the barns was unobstructed and that crowds and blockades in the streets were quickly cleared. This was done under orders from Mayor Carter H. Harrison, whose announced purpose was to preserve an impartial attitude, taking sides neither for nor against the strikers or the street car company which, though known as the Chicago City railway, is a private corporation, the lines of which extend through the south side of the city radiating from the business center.

New Chief of Police Has Charge.

Developments regarding the attitude of the municipal administration hinge largely upon a new official, Herman F. Schuetler, who, under appointment from the mayor, assumed the duties of assistant chief of police. Schuetler will be in direct charge of police arrangements during the contest. Schuetler is the man who tracked and arrested Anarchist Louis Lingg after the Haymarket riot and subsequently sent Adolf Luetgert, the wealthy sausage manufacturer, to die in the penitentiary under conviction for wife murder. Schuetler is an athlete, six feet four inches tall, and has a remarkable record for personal daring and astuteness.

As a result of the tieup of the surface lines the elevated and steam roads traversing the strike-bound district were taxed to their utmost capacity. Train service on all lines was doubled and every effort made to accommodate the thousands of additional passengers. Meanwhile bus lines, hacks and express wagons with improvised seats did a thriving business in transporting people to and from their places of business.

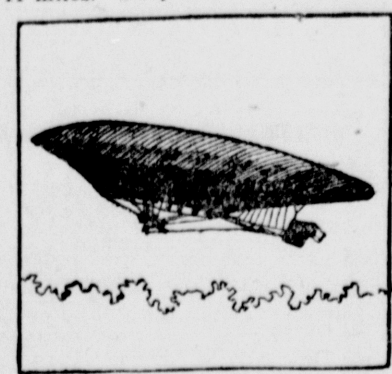

CAUSE OF THE STRIKE.

The strike is the outgrowth of persistent efforts for increased wages and exclusion of non-union employees. About 3,000 men, practically the entire force of the company's wage earners, are idle, the number of men at any time running cars being but a small fraction of the number usually at work. The company's stationary firemen, who have also presented demands for increased wages and to whom the trainmen looked for assistance, declined to go out, expressing their belief, after a conference with General Manager McCulloch, of the railway company, that he had not refused arbitration.

AERIAL NAVIGATION.

Dirigible Balloon Covers Distance of Forty-Four Miles.

Paris, Nov. 13.—The Lebaudy brothers, Paul and Pierre, French aeronauts, sailed their dirigible balloon from Moisson to Paris, a distance of 44 miles. They made the distance in the remarkable time of one hour and 40 minutes. The balloon landed in the champs de Mars, in the heart of Paris.

This is the longest trip ever made by a French dirigible balloon and marks a distinct step in advance in aerial navigation.

POSTOFFICES ROBBED.

Burglars Blow Safe and Made Good Haul.

Lima, O., Nov. 13.—Robbers blew the postoffice safe in the village of Lafayette, nine miles east of here. They secured $200 in stamps and $300 in money. The explosion wrecked the safe and aroused the villagers, but the robbers, three in number, made their escape.

Madison, O., Nov. 13.—Burglars broke into the safe in the postoffice and secured money and stamps to the amount of $100. They escaped in a stolen rig.

Biggest Engine in World.

Lima, O., Nov. 13.—The Lima locomotive and machine works has just completed what is believed to be the largest locomotive in the world. The engine was built for the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad and will be used on the Kenneys creek branch in West Virginia. The engine is a Shay and is over three times the dimensions of any other ever built here. The usual size of such makes are from 30 to 65 tons. This is 150 tons, has 16 drive wheels 40 inches in diameter, with a 17-inch stroke; a 62-inch wagon top boiler and an 8,000-gallon water tank. It is fitted with Westinghouse airbrakes and all modern appliances, in all 300,000 pounds on the drivers.

Coal Strike in Colorado.

Denver, Nov. 13.—The coal strike situation in Colorado is practically unchanged. Rumors of a conference between operators and union leaders which it is predicted would result in an adjustment of their differences have been in circulation, but they lack confirmation. Assurances are given by the large coal companies that there would be no coal famine in this city or elsewhere in the state. It is proposed to bring coal from the east if necessary. The management of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company has instructed all its dealers to sell the product of its mines at the same prices as before the strike was called.

Preparing for Bowling Tournament.
Cleveland, Nov. 13.—Arrangements were made by the Cleveland Tournament association for the purchase of 10 of the latest make continuous alleys to be used at the national bowling tournament which will be held in Central armory Feb. 8 to 13. The armory will be fitted up to make one of the finest alleys ever built. So many inquiries have been received from all sections of the country that the local committee believe that the attendance of crack bowlers will be the largest in the history of professional bowling. The armory will be arranged so that a seating capacity of 5,000 spectators will be made.

Stabbed the Leading Man.
Wheeling, Nov. 13.—Michael McNeil, leading member of the "Miss Bob White" opera company, was seriously stabbed in the face by Timothy Hickey in a Benwood saloon. The company was on its way from Bellaire and while waiting to get a train at Benwood, McNeil and others entered the saloon. An argument was started by Hickey and he pulled a knife and slashed McNeil under the eye. Hickey fled to Bellaire, but was brought back and is now in jail.

Strikers Rioting at South Webster.
Portsmouth, O., Nov. 13.—A serious riot is expected at South Webster, where strikers bombarded the brick plant of the Harbison-Walker company's brick plant, and then, it is alleged, fired upon a stockade where non-union men are housed. The sheriff sent deputies to the scene of the trouble. The situation is grave and as there are no authorities here to enforce the law the company has taken up the matter of dismantling the plant.
